I don't usually carry cash. But on this day, I paid the cashier cash for some new shoes. As I handed the cashier the bill, she grabbed a pen. I was somewhat intrigued. Then, she ran the pen across the bill. Now I was puzzled. So, I asked her the purpose of marking up my crisp bills. Come to find out, this was a standard procedure to check for counterfeit bills and the marker is designed to spot counterfeit bills.

Why would the cashier be concerned about this? The answer is obvious, counterfeit money has no value. Though the bill can pose as authentic for a period of time, sooner or later eventually someone is going to buy one of those markers and expose the lie.

Besides sharing time with family and friends over food, the primary ingredient of the American Thanksgiving holiday is gratitude. While it's certainly good to have an annual holiday to remind us to express gratitude, there's much to be said for the benefits of cultivating the spirit of thankfulness year-round.

People who are thankful for what they have are better able to cope with stress, have more positive emotions, and are better able to reach their goals. Scientists have even noted that gratitude is associated with improved health.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Every year, we set aside one day specifically to give thanks. In 1863, President Lincoln proclaimed that the final Thursday in November should be devoted to giving thanks. President Roosevelt signed the bill in 1941 officially making the fourth Thursday in November Thanksgiving Day. That day has come to mean different things to us – whether it be turkey, football, or shopping – but we all take time during that day to give thanks on purpose.

At Hope Children's Home, Thanksgiving takes on a special meaning. The children at Hope are thankful for things that many of us take for granted. For example, in most of our kitchens or pantries, we can easily find sliced bread or milk, and our laundry rooms are stocked with soap and laundry detergent. At Hope, even the most basic necessities are almost a luxury for which we are so grateful. One young man was asked what he was thankful for shortly after arriving at Hope, and he answered simply, "I'm thankful I have a bed!" So, as we enter this season of thanksgiving, please remember the children of Hope Children's Home. As you give to Hope those things that we all take for granted, remember that those are things for which we are most thankful – not just on Thanksgiving, but all the year around. Happy Thanksgiving from our family to yours!

Are You Gaining 10 More Pounds?

Samantha Taylor
Samantha Taylor Fitness

The average American gains 7 to 10 lbs. during the holidays. Is that going to be you? If you say, "No way," I encourage you to have a plan because many of the people that gained it didn't think that was going to happen, but it did.

It's important to have a plan and that plan is to enjoy the holidays but NOT gain weight, and it is possible. Thanksgiving and Christmas are about enjoying time with family and being thankful and celebrating our relationship with God. Sure, food is involved, but in order to not gain that dreaded 10 lbs. only to have to add it to our New Year's goals to lose it, we need to go into it with a different mindset.

Enjoy yourself but make sure when you go into an event where there is food that you are focused and activating your God-given self-control. I used to feel like I had NO self-control, I actually felt like I didn't receive that "fruit of the Spirit" the Bible talks about in Galatians 5:22 because I just didn't have any. If I saw a food I wanted, I felt like I had to eat it, I could NOT stop myself.

The ironic thing is, the more you surrender and pray about it, the more you can activate more self-control and the stronger you get. Part of that self-control is giving it over to God too and asking for His help.

I used to be a major food addict, a compulsive eater and would eat emotionally, which led to lots of issues with food. But when I learned how to pray about it and seek help from the Bible, it really helped me and because of applying it 16 years ago, I overcame my eating issues. Now food is just food. I still love eating, but poor choices don't control me anymore, and that is a big difference!

I had felt convicted that I was sinning by struggling with gluttony (overeating) and idolatry of food. I knew that I was not honoring my body as God's temple (1 Corinthians 6:18) and that I was abusing the gift He gave me to be a manager over.

I found the more I prayed, got certain scriptures that really spoke to me in those tough times and I really thought about what I was doing before I ate it. I got stronger and I was able to see my self-control in effect.

It has to do with renewing the mind (Ephesians 4:23) and choosing to make better choices so that you are breathing life into your body instead of consistently eating things you regret after you are done eating it. Sure, it tastes good while you are eating it, but I am talking about after that has worn off, then what are you left with?

So, how about this season you try something different? Make a decision that you refuse to gain weight over these next two months although you will still enjoy yourself. The biggest things most struggle with during this time is the extra sugar, all the extra starchy carbs, and lack of exercise.

So if you will pay attention to these three areas and add prayer into the mix for strength and direction, you will find yourself activating your God-given self-control more than you ever have!

I am doing a free seminar on Nov. 15th at 7:30pm on "How to Enjoy the Holidays & NOT Gain Weight". Feel free to join us by visiting www.SamanthaTaylorSeminars.com and I will give you some AMAZING Thanksgiving recipes including chocolate pecan pie, stuffing, and much more, but the healthy way!

Guard Your Heart

Dr. Dan Coflin
Pastor, River of Life Church

Lately, I have heard many conversations about the crazy events taking place in the world. Threats from rogue countries, anthem protests at home, warnings of economic failure, strange weather events, and the list goes on.

"The Times, They Are A-Changin," as Bob Dylan sang, seems to be the topic of news outlets, and because of those reports, many people are afraid for their future and uncertainty seems to be the norm.

Many "millennials" share a belief that their future is going to be brief. They fear nuclear holocaust or environmental disaster will bring an end to life as they know it. But what are these fears founded in? Historically, we are far better off today than anytime in human history. Our technological advancements have made our lives far easier than our ancestors.

Yes, there are threats, but the extent of natural disasters are no worse today than at other times in history, and there will always be some madman spewing out hatred and violence whether it is in the local mall or the leader of some backward country. So why is there such foreboding among so many?

In the Book of Proverbs, King Solomon says, "Keep your heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life." (Pr. 4:23) The word "keep" here means to hedge about, guard, or protect from intruders. Our hearts (souls, mind, and thoughts) are constantly being bombarded by other people's ideas and opinions. Some of those opinions may be correct, but many are based on inaccurate information and some are even purposeful deception to control a situation or manipulate circumstances for their own profit. How are we to know the difference?

The Bible teaches us that words are powerful. They can greatly influence those who hear to believe something to be true, and their believing will result in what they do and how they do it. So what you and I hear is very important, so much so that we are admonished to guard our hearts (thoughts, opinions, ideas, conclusions) with all diligence. That means we are not to take a casual approach to what we hear, but we are to consider carefully and judge what is heard to determine whether or not it is true, and this is to be done with all diligence, i.e. effort and thoroughness, not carelessly.

The reason we are to be so mindful about the words we hear is found in the rest of this verse, "for out of it [our heart] are the issues [forces] of life." In other words, what your heart is filled with will control your life.

What is your heart filled with? An easy way to determine what is in your heart is to simply listen to what comes out of your mouth. Jesus said, "out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks." (Mt. 12:34) The things you talk about are what your heart is filled with. Some people are filled with hurt and brokenness. Others with hatred and an unwillingness to forgive, and others are controlled by fear and uncertainty.

What our hearts are filled with will control our lives, and what our words are filled with will influence those who listen to us. We are all dispensers propagating faith or fear, hope or hopelessness, confidence and assurance or an evil foreboding of what lies ahead. Jesus said he came to give us life and life more abundantly (Jn. 10:10). Our hope is to be in God, and God's desire is for our good and blessing simply because he loves us. Don't be deceived, but guard your heart and fill it with the Word of God so your words will bring hope and life to all who hear you.

Counterfeit

Whether you intentionally use a counterfeit bill is irrelevant. If the marker reveals that you tried to pay with fake money, you will lose the bill at best, and may lose a day of freedom in jail. During his ministry, Jesus often encountered counterfeiters. In fact, He Himself was accused of blasphemy when he said "I Am." John 10:33: "The Jews answered him, saying, 'For good word we do not stone you, but for blasphemy and because you, being a man, make yourself God.'"

Years ago, a survey of Protestant youths from many denominations was done. They were asked whether they agreed with the following statement: "The way to be accepted by God is to try sincerely to live a good life."

More than 60% agreed that God is satisfied if a person lives the best life as he can. Many churchgoing people like this are confused on the most important question in life: "How can I be right with God?" Many think that sincerity is a big factor.

If you're sincere, God will let you into heaven even if you are a bit fuzzy on the truth. But that's like saying that a man who swallows poison will be healed, sincerely thinking it is medicine.

All the sincerity in the world can be fatal if it is not in line with the truth. Thinking that human effort and trying your best will play a big role into getting into heaven is like trying your best to jump across the Grand Canyon.

Satan is a master counterfeiter, trying to pass off on unsuspecting people a version of Christianity that looks pretty good, but is not going to be accepted by the bank in heaven. It's traumatic to get stuck with a counterfeit bill, and more traumatic to stand before God and hear Him declare that your Christianity is counterfeit.

In Philippians 3:1-3, the apostle Paul contrasts true and counterfeit Christianity. In Acts 51:1, the issue was debated and the leaders decided that the Gentiles did not have to become Jews or be circumcised to be saved, but were saved by grace through Christ alone.

That decision did not cause Satan to give up his efforts to pervert the truth of the gospel. He continued to work through a group of men known as the Judaizers, who followed Paul on his journeys, infiltrating the new churches and promoting counterfeit Christianity.

While the Judaizers no longer exist under that name, the core of their teaching is still prevalent today. Paul calls these men, who prided themselves on their good works, "evil workers." Counterfeit Christians stand alongside Satan taking pride in religious rituals as if they put us in the right standing with God. Pail calls these men katatome, which means "mutilators."

They took pride in their own achievements and good deeds and the means of making themselves right before God. Trust in human works brings glory to man and nullifies what Christ did for us on the cross. Embrace the true Christianity which relies on the works totally of Jesus Christ for salvation. He is our anchor of hope, and without Him all is lost.

Faith Goal Setting

James H. Willis, III

Founder and President
The Willis Agency, Inc
813-948-9109
Jim@TheWillisAgency.com
www.TheWillisAgency.com

1 Peter 5:7

Ha! This is a big topic that very few people accomplish. Now I know we normally might talk about goals for the New Year. Well, in many lives we might begin a new school year with goals or plans goals for the "Snowbird" season, and some companies set goals for their new business year. So let's view this as a "Goal Tune-Up!"

Goal setting is an ongoing process which serves as the basis for Life Planning. May I add that the process of goal setting is more important that the actual goals. Yet it is estimated that only 3% of Americans actually set goals—written goals. The reason this is so important for Christians is because it helps identify the "Biblical Stewardships" that are to be used as God-given gifts and resources (time, talents, treasures, truth, relationships, etc.) for the accomplishment of God-given goals and objectives.

Why Should We Set Goals?

1. They provide direction and purpose.
2. They help us to crystallize our thinking.
3. They provide personal motivation.
4. They are a statement of God's will for us.

Why Don't We Set Goals?

1. Fear of Failure.
2. Concern that it takes a great deal of time.
3. Lack of knowledge of how to set goals.
4. Lack of understanding of what goals to set.

So, as you can see, we are not just looking at setting goals from the world's motivational speakers' mindsets. We are setting "Faith Goals" or "An objective toward which I believe God wants me to move."

I feel I need to emphasize the word "faith" by a couple of definitions:

• "Faith" is acting on the basis that this is what God wants me to do." —Ron Blue

• "Faith is acting on the belief that the Bible is true in spite of my feelings and experiences to the contrary." —Ken Boa

• Faith is not the denial of reality, but the acceptance of a greater reality." —Beth Moore

This "Faith Goal" has 2 parts: my part and God's part. So here is the question:

How do I set a Faith Goal?

1. Spend time with God.
2. Write down your impressions.
3. Make it measurable. (It is not a goal until it is measurable. At best it is a good intention.)
4. Take action or take the first step.

I will end with one more encouraging quote:

"A dream is just a dream. A goal is a dream with a deadline and a plan." —Harvey Mackay

What are your "Faith Goals?"

Caring for you and yours,

Jim

Developing An Attitude of Gratitude Can Help You Live a Longer, Happier Life

"The word gratitude is derived from the Latin word gratia, which means grace, graciousness, or gratefulness (depending on the context). In some ways, gratitude encompasses all of these meanings. Gratitude is a thankful appreciation for what an individual receives, whether tangible or intangible.

With gratitude, people acknowledge the goodness in their lives. In the process, people usually recognize that the source of that goodness lies at least partially outside themselves. As a result, gratitude also helps people connect to something larger than themselves as individuals — whether to other people, nature, or God.

People feel and express gratitude in multiple ways. They can apply it to the past (retrieving positive memories and being thankful for elements of childhood or past blessings), the present (not taking good fortune for granted as it comes), and the future (maintaining a hopeful and optimistic attitude).

Regardless of the inherent or current level of someone's gratitude, it's a quality that individuals can successfully cultivate further."

One way to harness the positive power of gratitude is to keep a gratitude journal or list, where you actively write down exactly what you're grateful for each day. In one study, people who kept a gratitude journal reported exercising more, and they had fewer visits to the doctor compared to those who focused on sources of aggravation.

Ways to Cultivate Gratitude

Cultivating a sense of gratitude will help you refocus your attention toward what's good and right in your life rather than dwelling on the negatives and all the things you may feel are lacking.

And, like a muscle, this mental state can be strengthened with practice. Besides keeping a daily gratitude journal, other ways to cultivate a sense of gratitude include:

• Write thank you notes: Whether in response to a gift or kind act, or simply as a show of gratitude for someone being in your life, getting into the habit of writing thank you letters can help you express gratitude in addition to simply feeling it inside.

• Count your blessings: Once a week, reflect on events for which you are grateful and write them down. As you do, feel the sensations of happiness and thankfulness you felt at the time it happened, going over it again in your mind.

• Pray: Expressing thanks to God during your prayers is an important way to cultivate gratitude. Oftentimes we find ourselves asking God to meet our needs and wants, but forget to thank Him for all He provides for us every day. From our family, to our jobs, to our health, and to the beautiful sun, moon, and stars. Sometimes it's the little things we tend to take for granted.

Cultivating an Attitude of Gratitude as Part of a Healthy Lifestyle

Starting each day by thinking of all the things you have to be thankful for is one way to put your mind on the right track. Also, remember that your future depends largely on the thoughts you think today. So each moment of every day is an opportunity to turn your thinking around, thereby helping or hindering your ability to think and feel more positively in the very next moment.

Most experts agree that there are no shortcuts to happiness. Even generally happy people do not experience joy 24 hours a day. But a happy person can have a bad day and still find pleasure in the small things in life.

Be thankful for what you have. When life gives you a 100 reasons to cry, remember the 1,000 reasons you have to smile. Face your past without regret, prepare for the future without fear, focus on what's good right now, in the present moment, and practice gratitude. Remember to say "thank you"—to yourself, God, and others. It's wonderful to see a person smile, and even more wonderful knowing that you are the reason behind it! And with that, we wish you all a Happy and Healthy Thanksgiving!

The Best of the East vs. the Best of the West

FCA hosts 3rd Annual Pasco County All-Star Football Game

On December 7th, Pasco County will host the 3rd Annual All-Star Football Game. In the first two games, over 2,000 fans packed Sunlake Stadium to witness the east-west clash for football supremacy in the county.

Every public high school in the county (Cypress Creek in 2018) will participate in this final game of the 2017 season.

Who will come out on top this year with the series being tied 1-1 after two seasons? We invite you to come out to witness the exciting third game in the series.

Last month, the head coaches gathered in a room to conduct "draft day"—an NFL-type negotiation meeting where, in the back rooms of Sunlake High School offices, coaches would banter and barter, doing their best to present their athletes as worthy of taking the 22 positions being filled. After the deliberations, an all-star team was whittled down to the best 40 players in the east and the best 40 players in the west. These rosters can be seen on the All-Star website at www.pascoallstargame.com.

At FCA, we are very thankful to be able to organize this football game for the benefit of the players, coaches, schools, and Pasco sports in the community. We are also putting on the 2nd annual All-Star baseball game in the spring of next year!

For more information on how you can become a partner with FCA or a sponsor for an All-Star game, please contact Bob Durham, Area Director, at (813) 784-4410 or bdurham@fca.org.

Caring for Holiday Plants

Ever wonder what to do with those wonderful holiday plants? We will explore ways to take care of and prolong the life of poinsettias, Christmas cactus, amaryllis and more, so they will be enjoyed for a longer time. Come to this seminar and learn how! It will be on November 17, 2017 from 6:30-7:30pm at the Land O' Lakes Branch Library on 2818 Collier Parkway, Land O' Lakes, FL 34639.

The Cold and Flu Season is Here!

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Dr. Michele Johnson-Towson is a board-certified pediatrician with 26 years of experience in caring for children ages newborn to 21 years old. The doctor is encouraging patients to schedule now for flu shots. Vaccines are available and same-week appointments are possible.

Dr. Johnson-Towson and her staff are dedicated to keeping patients both healthy and educated on changes in children's healthcare. The live attenuated nasal flu spray vaccine is not recommended this year due to the Center for Disease Control (CDC) failing to prove it was adequate enough over the last 3 flu seasons to keep patients from contracting the influenza A (H1N1) type virus.

Normally, it is recommended for patients ages 2 to 49 that are healthy without underlying medical problems. The flu shot, which contains coverage against the influenza A&B strains, is available in proper doses for ages 6 months and up.

Tampa Bay students have been back in school for several weeks, sharing germs right along with academics and sports. Be sure to call Pediatric Place of Tampa and schedule checkups and physicals to keep your whole family healthy. It is important for shots to be up-to-date and hearing and vision tests current so students are ready for learning and healthy playing.

Pediatric Place of Tampa accepts all insurances as well as self-pay patients. New patients are always welcome! Pediatric Place of Tampa is conveniently located at 1338 W. Fletcher Avenue in Tampa. The cheerful, kid-friendly office is on the bus line, too. Call today at 813-264-2288 and schedule for protection against the flu season!

Florida Native Plant Society

The Nature Coast Chapter of the Florida Native Plant Society meets the second Tuesday of every month at 7:00pm at the Land O' Lakes Community Center, 5401 Land O' Lakes Blvd/US 41, Land O' Lakes, 34639, between SR 52 and SR 54. The subject of the Tuesday, November 14, 2017 meeting is "Florida Native Bromeliads" presented by Tom Wolfe.

They are not mosses as some of their common names suggest. All of Florida's 16 native bromeliad species are epiphytic, which means they grow on other plants, but they do not parasitize the host plant—they simply use it for support.

Tom has been growing bromeliads for over 50 years and has been president of the Bromeliad Guild of Tampa Bay, Inc. many times. He is past president of the Bromeliad Society International (BSI), been on the BSI board for 14 years, and is an Internationally Accredited Master Bromeliad Judge.

Meetings of the Chapter are free, and all interested parties are invited to attend, to bring questions about their yard, and participate in light refreshments and the native plant drawing. Telephone inquiries are taken by Sandy at (727) 207-1853.

Jesus + Nothing

Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

In Colossians 2, the Apostle Paul warns us that after we have accepted Jesus as our leader and our forgiver, we shouldn't settle for anything less than Jesus and Jesus alone. We should never forget that salvation is a Jesus + Nothing kind of plan. But through your spiritual journey, you're gonna have people try to convince you that salvation should be a Jesus + something else kind of plan. In Colossians 2:6 Paul says,"So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him." Don't add anything to the Jesus+nothing plan.

Paul warns in vs. 8:"See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ." - Colossians 2:8

Another version translates that verse as "Don't be kidnapped in your faith."

Paul unpacks for us some of these hollow and deceptive philosophies that can kidnap us and take us into a Jesus plus something kind of plan.

They include:

• Jesus + Special Diet plan.

"Therefore, do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink." - Colossians 2:16

Your diet isn't an issue that makes you in or out with God. Eating meat or vegetables won't bring you closer or further away from God. Jesus made this same point in Matthew 15:17: "Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?"

• Jesus + Special Days Plan.

"Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration, or a Sabbath day." - Colossians 2:16

• Jesus + Special Encounters Plan.

"Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you. Such a person also goes into great detail about what they have seen; they are puffed up with idle notions by their unspiritual mind." – Colossians 2:18

There has always been something spiritually attractive about the supernatural (about angels and visions), about someone who has a direct pipeline from God. Paul's saying to watch out for those with false humility who pride themselves in having these special visions.

• Jesus +Special Behaviors Plan

Paul talks about those who come up with a list of rules. Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!" See Colossians 2:21 (also see Colossians 2:22-23). Someone said a legalist is anyone who is afraid that someone somehow somewhere is having a good time. None of us want to become like the Pharisees. It's like dinner at Denny's. You never intend to go there; you just end up there somehow.

We are on a Jesus + Nothing Plan

We don't need anything other than him. I think this entire article is best summarized in this chapter when Paul says, "You have been given fullness in Christ." - Colossians 2:20

Until next time, Keith

TEEN DRIVER COACHING

As parents, there is no question that a driving education is one of the best things you can give your teenager. The price of any driving education is small, considering that the skills they learn can SAVE LIVES!

UNCLE GEORGE!

My daughter recently completed Phase I with "Uncle" George, and I am so grateful that there is a driving coach like him!

I was like you, reading one of these ads in my local Gazette, many, many years ago, and put the ad aside until recently. I always knew I would use his business some day for my daughters. Unlike my older boys, they didn't grow up playing Mario Cart with a steering wheel :).

But seriously, I knew the "drivers ed" in school was not enough training for them. And like you, I questioned it at first when I saw the cost (I have "Safe Driver" on my driver's license after all didn't I?). I have to tell you George has earned every penny paid him for his wisdom, expertise, demeanor, knowledge and skill (and sense of humor)!

As a behavior analyst who has written many a behavior program plan, (did you know there are more than 20 steps to learn to brush your teeth?!), I still could not have broken down the basics of learning to drive like George.

My daughter has learned, from the very beginning, safe excellent driving skills that will last her a lifetime. She enjoyed her lessons so much she has opted to sign up for Phase II.

Don't hesitate, make the call today!

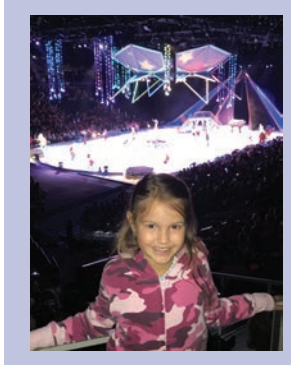
Our Readers Enjoying Disney On Ice!

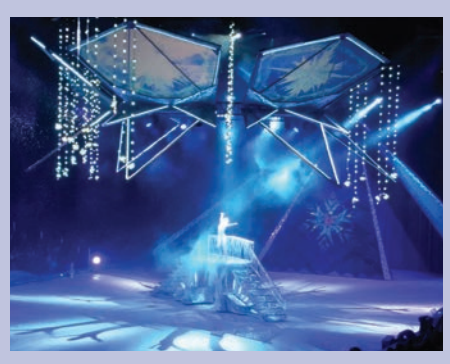


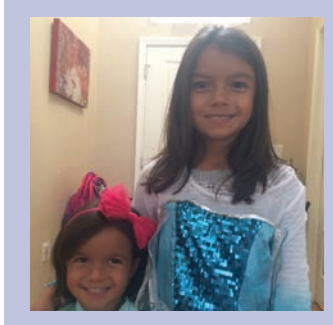
"We received the vouchers very quickly after hearing that we won. I am a huge Frozen fan and was super excited. My dad took me to the Amalie Arena and we picked the tickets for Saturday's show at 7pm. So to prepare, Friday night we had a Frozen night at home. We started with making "frozen" pizza for dinner. Then we had "frozen" coloring time where we colored our favorite Frozen character. Finally, we watched the movie Frozen. So, needless to say we were ready to go Saturday. We (my mom, my dad, my little cousin and I) arrived at the arena around 545 and found our seats. I think we had the best seats in the house. During intermission, I got a "Frozen" snow cone and had my photo taken with Olaf! The show was great and we were really COLD! It was very cold in the arena!!! I just wanted to send you a short note telling you "thank you" for drawing my name for the tickets. I sent you a photo of me at the show. Thank you again for letting me go to see my favorite movie in person!!!"

— Lynzie

"I've attached some of the pics from Frozen for you – again thank you so much for the tickets. The little girl, Sophia, is mine—she is 5—and the little boy is Jackson, my best friend's son and he is 3."

— Jennifer E. Y.





"I just wanted to thank you so much for the tickets to Disney on Ice. My girls Ava and Annelise have loved Frozen for many many years and know the words to "Let It Go"!"

"I recently won 4 tickets to Disney on Ice. While I did not go, my wife, our three grandchildren, and my daughter did. The kids were elated, the seat location was excellent, and they had a wonderful time. My 2 year old grandson got so excited when Mickey showed up he was literally shaking and blowing him kisses. Thank you so much for the tickets and for your wonderful publication."

— John S.

"I wanted to thank you for the kind prize you awarded me in one of your recent contests. My grandchildren loved the Disney on Ice this past weekend. Thanks for making their week. They loved it! Great publication! Thanks!"

Craig J. Olsen, P.A.

Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Over 25 years ago, Mr. Olsen began his career as an insurance defense attorney and shortly thereafter decided that he preferred to serve the public's interests rather than those of the insurance industry. He opened his practice, focusing on personal injury and workman's compensation cases, in order to help people with their legal needs.

After a serious injury, a person may be inundated with medical bills. These circumstances can be overwhelming and clients need to know all of their options. How will medical bills get paid, in addition to their regular monthly bills, if they are unable to work? What are their legal rights if they are not at fault for the injury?

There are strict time limitations on personal injury cases. Therefore, they need answers right away. Evidence must be recovered before it is lost and witnesses must be interviewed. Notices to insurance companies and municipalities must be filed in a timely manner.

With extensive experience handling cases in both federal and state courts, Mr. Olsen and his staff work strategically to help clients declare their rights and receive compensation for their losses.

All personal injury cases are taken on a contingency fee basis. Clients do not pay a fee until the case is concluded by trial or settlement. If there is no recovery earned in the case, there is no obligation to pay fees or costs.

Craig J. Olsen, P.A. is located at Westbrook Professional Park, 28957 State Road 54, Wesley Chapel, FL 33543. For a free, no-obligation consultation, call 813-991-7775 or 813-624-3000 or visit http://www.cjolaw.com.

Pure Health & Fitness Studios

Samantha Taylor

"I've been one of their longest-running advertisers for thirteen years and have been absolutely amazed with my experience. This paper has been the BIGGEST factor God has used for my success as a Personal Trainer and Weight Loss Expert.

Thanks to THIS paper, it's contributed to me successfully training over 4,500 women. Even though I got calls from day one, the thing I've been lately amazed with is how many loyal readers this paper has. I get calls from people that have been reading my articles for years and since they are now ready to get in better shape and better health, they call me because I've been the trusted source they've seen for so many years in THIS paper.

Even in tough times, I've never, nor will I ever, stop advertising in this paper. It's been a tool that has built my business to be one of the most successful Personal Training Studios around. Thank you, Dunndeal Publications! I wouldn't have done it without you!"

"Well you checked my £20 note so I'm checking the change you gave me!"

Chris Tillman

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndeal Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!
