The Return of the Cosmic King!

If you have been following the current events through your local news and YouTube social media, you may have come across some interesting events taking place. Some groups call out "the sky is falling" and calling it a doomsday event—you know those guys—while others are heading out to witness these world events, but myself, I think of these events as the world turns, God is in control.

On 6/17/17, a bizarre accident or attack on the U.S.S. Fitzgerald occurred, and on 7/13/17 a massive iceberg the size of Delaware broke away from Antarctica! On 8/21/17, a total solar eclipse crossing over the Yellowstone and the New Madrid fault zone is scheduled, and on 9/23/17 the constellation of Virgo-Leo is predicted, or why is Trump still president?

Matthew 24:4-8: "Jesus answered: 'Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah,' and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains."

We don't know with 100% certainty what will happen September 23rd 2017, when the Revelation 12 sign occurs and planets Venus, Mars, and Mercury show up to meet with the constellations Virgo & Leo. This is a major prophecy that has never happened before, so truly we can say we have a major event unfolding in our hands.

belle âme Day Spa & Salon

By Karen McBride

Taking care of ourselves should be a priority, but many of us put it on the back burner. Schedule your next spa treatment at belle âme. Anti-aging facials, hot stone massages, and manicures will help you to feel rejuvenated to handle your daily challenges. Read testimonials from our recent guests:

"I am one of those clients that have been to numerous hair stylists, and I have had the crazy hair, the fried hair, and just had to have it cut off. I came here and Amelia just took my hair and transformed it. This is a wonderful establishment." — Samantha

"Absolutely an amazing day. First a relaxation massage by Cenia that was great, a facial, pedicure, and manicure by Katrina excellent in all areas, and then hair colored by Amelia which turned out incredible. So if you want to spend the day in a buffy robe while being spoiled and catered to enjoying a couple glasses of wine, I highly recommend belle âme Day Spa for a "ME" day!!!"

— Julia

"This place is amazing. It's so warm and inviting. I had such a wonderful time getting my hair and nails done by Amelia! Love this place! I am looking forward to getting a massage next."

— Cammie

"I just had the best massage of my life at belle âme! I have had many massages, but Angel is BY FAR THE BEST! He is so gifted and in tune with one's body. He knew exactly how to help me. I feel amazing!" — Norie

"I recently spent the day with my daughter at the spa. We started with a 2 hour massage and then had an amazing lunch. After lunch, we had a facial, a manicure, and pedicure and our hair done. It was so relaxing and everyone was so professional! It was a great way to connect with my daughter!"

— Jacqueline

"I have had the hot stone, therapeutic, and deep tissue massage. The masseuse was wonderful! Each time, she educated me about what she was doing as she gave me the massage. It helped me to feel more comfortable and relaxed." — Kay

It's Complicated

Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

Think about how different we are from each other. It's not surprising we have conflict because we're all different. We've got night people and day people, baseball people and tennis people, coffee people and tea people, cat people and dog people.

The same God that put 18 million different snow crystals in every one cubic foot of snow has made every one of us unique and different from one another.

The Old Testament has this piece of wisdom about our kids: "Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old, they will not turn from it." Proverbs 22:6 (NLT)

The way they should go is different for every child. Every child is unique, with different talents, gifts, temperaments, and passions. It's the job of the parent to figure out how God has made them unique.

The Bible also says in 1 Corinthians 2, "Examine yourself."

One of the most practical things you can do in opening up the door to understanding complicated relationships in your life is to ask yourself these very important but simple questions:

- Am I an initiator or a responder? Am I an extrovert or an introvert?
- Am I a thinker or a feeler? Am I structured or unstructured?

Let me ask you a question. What usually happens between an initiator and a responder, an extrovert or an introvert, a thinker or a feeler, a structured or an unstructured person? They fall in love, they get married, they have families, and eventually they look each other in the eye, and ask our question of the day:

"Why can't you be normal like me?"

Relationships are complicated.

The Apostle Paul said, in Romans 12:2 (NLT), "Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think."

Not "God change them, fix them, they're the problem." This says let God transform you into a new person. You're the one that's got to change. You can't change another person. You can only change yourself.

So you begin this process on your knees, saying "God, change me."

Change your thinking and you will change your relationships. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect. You may say that sounds so unattainable right now. Great relationships are a possibility if you're willing to go about this God's way, to be transformed from the inside by and with God.

Christian Youth Event

The truth for a broken generation

Between 100,000 and 300,000 underage girls are sold for sex in the U.S. every year. By the age of 14, 94 percent of children will have been exposed to pornography. Over 50 percent of teenagers have engaged in sexual intercourse by the time they're 18 years old. One third of teens who get pregnant seek an abortion. There is a dire need for the truth in this broken culture.

Silver Ring Thing (SRT) is an international youth ministry that defies today's culture of the meet-up, hook-up, break-up mindset that contributes to brokenness. The organization's newest tour, EXPLICIT TRUTH: Leaving Nothing Merely Implied, presents the truth about love, relationships, sexuality, and identity.

"Our culture is dealing with an epidemic of sexual brokenness," said SRT President Jason Burt. "Our children are victims of an ideology of misinformation and mistruth. It's time to give real, honest answers to the questions being asked and challenge this generation to live with great dignity and worth."

The live concert-style event will be held at North Pointe Church on September 6 and at The Church at Odessa on September 7 from 7pm to 9pm. Both events are free and an optional ring is available for $20.

There will be a parent's session beginning at 7pm, which is designed to help parents support their child's decision.

The SRT tour team, a group of 20-some-things from across the U.S., encourages students to control their bodies and hold out for something better—sexual intimacy within the bonds of marriage.

During a high-energy, action-packed event, tour team members share their stories of success, failure, forgiveness, and hope using skits, humor, drama, commercial parodies, and personal testimonies.

Sponsored by the Oasis Pregnancy Center, Moody Radio, and the CleanCare Team, SRT will be promoting these values and ideals with the hopes of reaching as many teens as possible. For more information or to register, visit our website at www.silverringthing.com.

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." — Ephesians 2:8-10

Revival, Pt. 2: "Jesus, call your first witness!"

"You are My witnesses," declares the Lord, "and My servants whom I have chosen." (Isa. 43:10)

"Honey, you won't believe it!" said a man in a highly excited manner.

"Believe what?" his wife asked.

"I've been subpoenaed! I have to appear in court next month as a witness to that accident I saw on Bruce B. Downs the other day! Aaaaah!"

Have you ever been subpoenaed? Perhaps your answer should be yes and no. You may not have been served a government notice compelling you to give witness in a court of law, but, if you are a Christian, you have been subpoenaed by Jesus! The day you looked to Him as your Savior and Lord, He served you (see, Acts 1:8). "To what has the Lord called me to bear witness?" you might ask. Very simple. To the truth of the Gospel.

Did you know 7:10 American adults have no clue what John 3:16 means? And they're not running to their Bibles to find out. So how can they be persuaded about it? Hear the answer from Paul the apostle, "You are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts." (2 Cor. 3:3). The only Bible most are reading is us.

Unsaved people, like jurors, can be persuaded about the truth of a matter only in relation to the evidence in support of it. A lawyer may be the greatest ever to grace a court, but if those called to bring forth testimony don't come through on the stand, the case will be lost.

In just the same way, God, to reach and save the lost, aims to persuade them by evidence of the truth of the gospel. He subpoenaed us to produce that evidence. It's a huge matter because the souls of our fellow man hang in the balance. If there is little compelling evidence that repenting and trusting Jesus results in gaining a new heart and a new spirit and receiving the very Holy Spirit into our lives, the jurors will not believe it true.

Still more, if salvation through Christ results in peace, joy, and hope in the human heart, the witness the world will weigh to the truth of this is us. Is the love of God really shed abroad into people's hearts by the Holy Spirit when they get saved like the Bible teaches (Rom. 5:5)? Then what proof will a jury of our peers look for to believe it so? Won't it be that they will need to see whether professing Christians love our neighbor, or the needy, or the hurting, or our enemies, or even one another (John 13:35)?

Part of the great news of the gospel is that God goes to work in us when we are saved. Remember Philippians 2:12? "God is at work within us to will and to do His good pleasure!" Is there evidence to that plain enough to persuade the public mind? Is it crystal clear that the hearts of the redeemed are moved by a strong desire to please God and to avoid that which grieves His loving, holy heart? If not, it will be well nigh impossible to persuade the world the Gospel is true!

Dear friends, can you see now why revival right now is the greatest need of our time and of our nation? An old prophet once queried, "Who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" The answer today is clear—to nowhere near enough. In spite of the fact that so many of us profess to be saved, so few who don't are believing the report. Why? Lack of evidence. Evidence demands a verdict.

Some things to think about. Could it be that you've lost that "first love" that once filled your heart for Jesus? Can you yet remember how your heart once longed to bring God glory and to spread His love all around? If you can, you are definitely saved. But if it's only a memory, and a fading one at that, you need to be revived and get that first love back. Do you know how? Stay tuned. That will be our focus next time.

'Til we finish the race,
Pastor Mike

Wealth Transfer

James H. Willis, III
 Founder and President
 The Willis Agency, Inc

Jim@TheWillisAgency.com
www.TheWillisAgency.com
1 Peter 5:7

When I bring up the topic of Wealth Transfer, we need to realize that it is different from Estate Planning. Estate Planning is all about the estate. It is done at death and is driven by tax efficiency and control, whereas Wealth Transfer places high priority on a benefit to a beneficiary. Wealth Transfer is stewardship-driven and can begin now, with goals and a priority of honoring God. It is said that Wealth Transfer is the last stewardship decision we will make.

On the average, household wealth is growing and will likely go the next generation. This wealth is going to be transferred to future generations and many will not even know the source of their wealth. So, it becomes very important that this transfer of wealth be very thoughtful. It is said that there will be $42-$126 trillion dollars passed to the next generation over the next 40 plus years. That is $1-3 trillion yearly.

This information makes the process and its intentionality very important. Developing this process that begins as soon as possible that is stewardship-driven will honor God and will help plan the potential impact to your heirs. Besides the 6 steps of Wealth Transferring there are 3 principles I'd like to share. 1) Treasure Principle: You can't take it with you, but you can give it ahead of time. 2) The Unity Principle: Husbands and wives must be in complete agreement. 3) The Wisdom Principle: Never pass wealth without first passing wisdom. Wealth will never create wisdom, although wisdom may create wealth. At the Willis Agency, we have the tools and the relationships to start and finish this process.

"This, then is held to be the duty of the man of wealth: First, to set an example of modest, unostentatious living, shunning display or extravagance; to provide moderately for the legitimate wants of those dependent upon him; and after doing so to consider all surplus revenues which come to him simply as trust funds, which he is called upon to administer."

Are You at the Breaking Point?

reached your breaking point?" Have you realized you just aren't going to take it another day? To see improvement, you have to refuse to accept mediocrity and being unhappy with yourself enough to do something about it. I heard someone say, "To make it real, you schedule it and take immediate action towards it."

Many of us have a place in our life where we reach a point of frustration and we just can't take it anymore. I call that our Breaking Point. The good thing is the breaking point can actually help us in life because it forces us to do something about our situation.

When we have become so uncomfortable with ourselves, we actually get fed up and we do something to make a change. One particular breaking point that happens for many women is when their largest size clothes don't even fit anymore and they refuse to buy a bigger size. This can actually be a healthy boundary to have for yourself, to refuse to continue to go up in larger-sized clothes.

This can be a good breaking point because when your largest size doesn't fit anymore and you won't buy more clothes, then you will be forced to do something about the weight. By the sheer default of being so uncomfortable in your clothes that you can hardly breathe, you reach that breaking point to say, "This has got to stop! I must do something!" Or you bend down to pick something up and the button pops off!

You can use that frustration in a way to motivate yourself as you decide you aren't going to put up with it another day. That is one great thing, yet also one challenge about our God-given free will is that you can decide to do something or you can decide not to. It is YOUR choice! However, with that choice will come consequence or great reward.

So my question to you is, "Have you

What can you do in your life THIS week to make it more real? Something that will move you forward in the direction that you want to go with your health and fitness. Put it on your calendar or even stop and do something about it right now! Think of what it is that you can do and do it. There is great power in taking immediate action when you are excited to do something about it.

One thing you can do to take that next step to doing something is go to my story and see some of the amazing before and after pictures of other women who reached their breaking point. Now their whole lives have improved and they feel AMAZING!

We can help you map out a plan to your success. We now have four locations, our newest one is in Westchase and we are having Grand Opening specials for the first 20 members. See the amazing before and after here and be inspired! Go online to www.SamanthaTaylorFitness.com.

Most of all, please take action towards your health for you and your family. Don't wait until your breaking point is a health crisis where you are forced to take action and have negative consequences from it, like a heart attack or stroke instead of choosing to do something about it proactively. Summer is almost over, and it's a great time to get into shape now before winter!

Trust me, you will thank yourself for meeting with us or calling us. Talk to you soon!

Garden Connect

By Steve and Jeanne Wolfe
from White Dove Farm

Cardamom is used widely in Scandinavian and German cooking. It is popular in their breads, cakes, and desserts. This recipe for masala chai (tea) enclosed is popular and very tasty. Jeanne and I came across this delectable drink at a restaurant near Orlando, FL, it was served in a lovely china cup, nice and hot, about ten years ago. This can be made from scratch by grinding and grating the ingredients or the simple modified way. We make it for two people.

Masala Tea

1. Bring two cups of water to a boil.
2. One ginger tea bag and one black tea bag
3. ½ tsp. Ground Cardamom
4. Pinch of black pepper
5. One cinnamon stick
6. Add milk of your choice about ½ cup.
7. Add sweetener of your choice. Lower heat to a simmer for 2 – 5 minutes.

Voila, enjoy! Check this out—<https://www.klgspice.com>.

Growing Conditions: Known as the Queen of spices. The leaves are long and lance-shaped, and the flowers arise from the base of the plant. The flowers are white with purple veining. They produce three-sided green cardamom pods that are filled with small aromatic seeds. It usually takes two years before it starts fruiting.

The plant prefers a rich, moist, loamy, and slightly acidic soil. Amend the soil with the minerals phosphorus and potassium. Bury the seed in shallow soil. This is a subtropical and tropical plant USDA zones 10 – 13.

We hope that you enjoyed reading our research on cardamom and will try the tea recipe we shared. Share your knowledge with us and any recipes you might have in your possession with cardamom. Email us at whtdovefarm@yahoo.com.

What is cardamom? “Cardamom, sometimes Cardamon or Cardamum, is a spice made from the seeds of several plants in the genera Elettaria and Amomum in the family Zingiberaceae. Both genera are native to India, Bhutan, Indonesia, and Nepal.” Bhutan is located in South Asia bordering China and India. Cardamom is also native to N. Africa and the Middle East. The pods can also be used whole or ground. It has a sweetly aromatic fruit related to ginger. It is also the third most expensive spice after saffron and vanilla.

The health benefits of cardamom include gastrointestinal protection, cholesterol control, control of cancer, relief from cardiovascular issues, and improvement of blood circulation. Cardamom possesses aphrodisiac properties and also used for impotency. Ayurvedic medicine contacts: www.webmd.com/balance/guide/ayurvedic-treatments. We do not advocate any opinion. Cardamom is also used for pleasant breath like in chewing gum.

The Return of the Cosmic King!

As people divide themselves into different groups, there are those who absolutely oppose any rapture theory of any kind whatsoever, saying no need to watch for the coming of the Lord, let time proceed and let things fall into place as they wait for the rapture to occur accordingly with other failed doomsday theories.

Another group will fall for the theory hook, line, and sinker like Noah, when God asked him to build an ark to specific measurements and specifications despite others who laughed and mocked him about climate change. But Noah stayed on the job and did everything God asked of him, just as Jesus told his disciples go out in the world and teach about the good news of the Lord and celebrate a great revival of the day of Jubilee.

Another group will do as Jonah did. When God told him to go to the city of the Ninevites, Jonah said, "The people in Nineveh are bad. They are lazy, they steal, they are not kind to each other, nor do they care for the sick and the elderly, they have a king pretending not to see any problems. But most of all, they are the enemies of my friends and neighbors. Send a flood or earthquake to punish them."

But God said to Jonah, "That's because they don't know Me and why you must go and tell them about Me right now, and if they do not change in 40 days, I will punish them."

But instead, Jonah thought of his own plan. He would quietly sneak off to hide out in the city called Tarshish, located on the other side of the world, hoping God could not find him. As soon as the ship set sail, a major storm appeared, breaking up the ship. Jonah cried out to the crew, "It's all my fault. God has found Me! You must throw me overboard and save yourselves!"

And they did. Suddenly the sea become calm and a whale came along and swallowed up Jonah and delivered him safely to Nineveh. Nevertheless, this group is doing exactly that, keeping quiet, hunkering down and hiding from God as they wait for the rapture to occur accordingly, along with other failed doomsday theories. As Nibiru, Planet X, or as in Rev 8:11, Wormwood, passes through our solar system. Though I could not find anything about the seven years of tribulation, maybe this is where it comes into play. But if you google Walmart underground, you may get a better idea.

Yes, it sure is getting hot as these occurrences in Heaven unfold. "God is on the move!"

A Celebration of the Year of Jubilee.

In the beginning of Jesus' ministry, Jesus went into the synagogue on the Sabbath Day and stood up to read the book of the prophet Isaiah and began his public ministry with a quote about the Jubilee. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, for this reason He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal those who are brokenhearted, to proclaim pardon to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind,

This is a belated but heartfelt "thank you" for the tickets to the Big Cat Rescue! I am so excited about getting to visit this amazing place. I will be visiting the Big Cat Rescue near my birthday and I can't think of a better gift!

to send forth in deliverance those who have been crushed, and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

The Bible describes a period of time of rejoicing, trumpets will sound, all debts would be canceled, all slaves will be released from captivity. Servants would be free to go back to their homes and all property and land is returned to its original owner. A celebration known as the Day of Atonement, for God owns everything, and He has set up a special regularly occurring period of time where man's possessions will be returned to him, called the Jubilee. This occurs after seven sets of seven yearly intervals equaling 49-50 total years are finished.

As Daniel explains his Jubilee Biblical prophecy theory this would be like when Jesus comes, He will have a deed in hand. In Genesis, when God created man He gave dominion over the earth, then Satan the serpent came and man sinned, giving up his ownership or lordship of the earth to Satan. Though this may sound like a fairy tale, Satan now holds lordship over what is going on now until Jesus returns on his white horse and reclaims the lordship of earth. This is a Jubilee.

The six-day war. In May of 1967, the state of Israel was only 19 years old. At inception in 1948, five Arab armies had coordinated a military invasion to prevent the creation of the small Jewish country. But Israel's War of independence succeeded in repelling the forces bent on Israel's destruction. Israel reclaimed sovereignty over the ancient Jewish homeland, making the way to the establishment of a Jewish country after 2,000 years of statelessness and persecution. 1967 + 50 Jubilee years = 2017.

Revelation 12:1-12
"A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth. Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on its heads. Its tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth."

- As in the day of Sodom & Gomorrah -

The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that it might devour her child the moment he was born. She gave birth to a son, a male child, who "will rule all the nations with an iron scepter." And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne. The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

What's In Your Tank?
 Anne Childers, Staff Writer

Aquariums can be both soothing and entertaining to watch at the same time. Wayne Scott and Sue Ingold, co-owners of What's In Your Tank, an aquarium sales and service store, know this firsthand.

Wayne's interest in fish tanks began after he was injured in the war. He had read about the calming effect of aquariums and wanted to further his healing with a tank in his home.

Sue and her husband, Russ, held a passion for aquariums for many years. After Russ' retirement, Sue wanted him to keep busy, so they began a small clownfish business.

The trio met in 2009 while attending a meeting of aquarium enthusiasts. They often talked about starting their own business, but when Russ passed away, the dream was put on hold. In 2016, Sue and Wayne took that step of faith and opened the business.

In addition to providing service for aquariums, customers can find a selection of fish and supplies for their salt and fresh water tanks. In August, store specials include: buy one fresh water Tetra and get the second for 99 cents, as well as a 20% discount on salt water tank supplies.

What's In Your Tank is located at 3940 Lake Padgett Drive, Land O' Lakes, FL. For more information, call 813-388-9772 or go to <http://whatsinyourtank.shop>.

Have You Heard the Expression, "I'm in the Pits"?

We've heard people say "Wow, I was sure in the pits yesterday when this or that happened."

Maybe someone received bad news, or maybe they were just overwhelmed with circumstances! Did you know the Psalmist David spoke of being in a horrible pit?

He described this pit as tumultuous (loud and confusing) and destructive. In Psalm 40:1-3 (AMP) he declared how the Lord drew him out of that pit.

Maybe you have been struggling in a place physically, mentally, or spiritually that feels like you're in a pit much like David. He said that "He cried unto the Lord!" Did you know God is the one to run to in time of trouble? He is the only one with the answers you need. In fact, David goes on to say that when he cried unto the Lord he waited patiently.

We live in a society where everything has to be instant. We have lost the art of practicing patience. Believe me, it takes practice and some people are more apt than others. Nevertheless, it is so important to practice patience, as David did, when coming to the Lord. He didn't get frustrated in a few minutes and walk away, mad at God, as some do! Instead, David "waited patiently and expectantly for the Lord" (Ps. 40:1, AMP). You will note that David was not only patient but also expectant. This implies that his heart was filled with excitement that something good was about to happen!

You see, David's attitude of heart, though troubled, was confident that God would hear him! The latter part of this verse says, "And He (God) inclined to me and heard my cry." This word inclined literally means that God leaned forward and heard David's heart. It wasn't that God was waiting to see how long David could suffer before He moved; it was that David's faith had moved Him to respond.

We are told in Hebrews 11:6 (AMP) "But without faith it is impossible to (walk with God and) please Him, for whoever comes (near) to God must (necessarily) believe that God exists and that He rewards those who (earnestly and diligently) seek Him."

I wonder if you are in the pits today if maybe an attitude adjustment, as David had, would help you in your circumstance! We see the reward of David's faith in verse 2 of Psalms 40. It says, "He drew him out of that pit and set his feet upon a rock and steadied him, and put a new song in his mouth."

This was a song of praise that many would hear and see God's hand of deliverance. Maybe you are in a pit today. Lift up your shield of faith again, no matter how tattered you might think it is, and watch God draw you out of your pit and make you a trophy of His grace!!!

Our services begin 10:30am on Sundays. We would love to have you come!!

The Return of the Cosmic King!

Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death. Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you! He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short."

Revelation 12:1-12, Matthew 24:36, Isaiah 7:14, Luke 21:25, 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17
Matthew 24:44: "So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him."
