There's no doubt that Valentine's Day is one of America's most popular days. More than 62% of Americans celebrate by sending greeting cards, flowers, candy, jewelry, or by enjoying a romantic dinner. But the origin of Valentine's Day is surprising.

For example, the roots behind Valentine's Day go all the way back to an ancient Roman fraternity fest held in mid-February called Lupercalia.

Later, the Christian church chose mid-February for Saint Valentine's Day in order to Christianize the celebration, but who was St. Valentine?

Not much was known about the holiday's namesake. First of all, there was more than one such Christian priest. One thought it was unjust and defied the Emperor and continued to marry young lovers in secret.

Seffner Christian Academy Student Florida Strawberry Festival Queen

Ally Elizabeth Burt was crowned queen of the 83rd Florida Strawberry Festival at the annual pageant in Plant City, FL. Burt was selected from a field of 28 contestants who also voted her Miss Congeniality. Dallas Baker was chosen first maid along with court members Baylee Astin, Selena Berrios, and Zoe Rasmussen. Burt is the daughter of Royce and Raquel Burt. She is currently a senior at Seffner Christian Academy and is dual enrolled at Hillsborough Community College. Burt serves as senior class president and Student Government president. She plans to attend a Florida university to pursue a degree in biology. The Florida Strawberry Festival Queen's Competition is organized by the Plant City Lions Club and is composed of five facets of competition: a personal interview, on-stage speaking, casual wear, evening wear, and an impromptu question.

About the Florida Strawberry Festival

The Florida Strawberry Festival is an 11-day community event celebrating the strawberry harvest of Eastern Hillsborough County. Each year, over 500,000 visitors enjoy the festival's headline entertainment, youth livestock shows, exhibits of commerce and, of course, its strawberry shortcake. The 2018 Florida Strawberry Festival, where we're "Building New Memories!," takes place March 1-11 in Plant City, FL. For more information, visit www.flstrawberryfestival.com, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter (#berryfest18).

Encountering the Real Jesus, Part 1: Who is this Man?

Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

I want to start a new series of articles this month—“Encountering the REAL Jesus”—by talking about him and his impact on the world. Let’s suppose you wanted to change the world so much that all of history would be divided into what happened before you lived, and into what happened after you lived. What would you do? It’s been done ONE time.

The impact of his life is so deep that every year his birth remains the most celebrated birth in the world.

The instrument on which he was killed, a cross, marks more graves and adorns more jewelry than any other symbol in human history. If you look at the world in which he was born, the ancient world was a darker and crueler place than a lot of us know.

Then there was the world that Jesus saw. The beauty of his imagination has affected people like nobody else. Most people have no idea of the impact Jesus has had on our world. So, very briefly, let’s reflect together on it.

Jesus gave the world its most influential movement—the Church.

Where before the church was there a movement that actively sought to include every person, regardless of ethnicity, status, or gender, to be loved and transformed? It did not exist.

Jesus changed how we think about history. In the 6th century, a monk proposed a new calendar centered on the birth of the carpenter, Jesus. The creation of the Christian calendar wasn’t just a chronological convenience. It was a claim, an idea, that existence is NOT a random cycle, but it has a meaning. 2000 years after his birth, anytime anyone on the planet looks at a calendar we are reminded daily that Jesus Christ (and no other) has become the hinge of history.

Jesus shaped how we express compassion.

In the ancient world, a child could be left to die if it was the wrong gender. Anybody want to guess what the wrong gender was? Girls. But these followers of Jesus remembered that Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me.” They began to take in abandoned children. And then they began orphanages.

The Jesus movement shaped education.

92% of all colleges and universities started in the United States before the Civil War were founded in His name. The Jesus movement revolutionized art, changed political theory, and changed how we think of human rights and dignity. Jesus uniquely taught love of enemies. In the ancient world you helped your friends and harmed your enemies. Regardless about what you think about Jesus, this is profound.

Until next month,
 Keith

Love MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

When we turn the page of the calendar from January to February, the thought in everyone’s mind turns to Valentine’s Day. Husbands scramble to buy chocolate and flowers, elementary school children exchange Valentine’s with their classmates, and candy hearts strive to convey such love in such a small space! Love is in the air! There is a group that is sometimes forgotten this time of year, those who crave to experience the same love expressed by so many on Valentine’s Day. That group is the children of Hope.

When children arrive at Hope, we want them to understand two things. That we love them, and Jesus loves them, no matter what. God showed His love to us by giving His Son, Jesus. You can show love to the young people at Hope through your prayers and support. If you would like to make a contribution, you can donate directly on our website at www.HopeChildrensHome.org/donate. Maybe, you would prefer to purchase items for the children from our Immediate Needs List, have them delivered, or deliver them yourself at our home. You can also purchase items from our Giving Catalog online. However you choose to express your love to the children at Hope, it is always much appreciated.

YOU CAN HELP BY GIVING:

- A Financial Gift (online or mail)
- Immediate Needs (see our website for a list)
- Gently-Used Items (see our website for drop-off locations or to schedule a pickup)

Regrets by Retirees

Have you ever tackled a DIY (Do-It-Yourself) project and in the end regret how it turned out? Or when you read the online forums it said the average time was thirty minutes, and two hours later you're still working on it?

Well I have and half way through, I wished I would've paid someone to do it. Life is full of failures and with it inevitably come regrets. In the end, you have two options: learn and improve or sulk and stay miserable. Retirees tend to look back more than others and some of their wisdom may be worth listening to.

I read an article recently that described a caregiver's journey when talking with her patients. Her findings were interesting. Some were regrets of things done and others were regrets of things not done and wish they would've.

With over 10 years of relationships with people near or at retirement, I have found the same statements resurface. Some of the regrets could be helpful to you, and you can learn from them and improve right now instead of repeating their same regrets.

1. I wish that I had saved more money.
2. I wish that I had been more knowledgeable about money and/or had a trusted financial adviser to work with.
3. I wish that I had taken better care of my health.
4. I wish that I had gotten involved in the things that I really love sooner in life.
5. I wish that I had spoken sooner with my children about the needs and desires of my later life.

Finally, if you are in the stage of retirement, believe there's still something that can be done today. Plenty of people have made changes in their "retirement" stage resulting in great impact. There is an excellent book out there for those near or in this stage. It shows how retirement could be your most significant stage of life. I would highly recommend it. It's called Halftime: Moving from Success to Significance by Bob Buford. The key to remember is not to focus on the past but to pursue the future. If you need help with clarity about your financial future, give me a call or send me an email.

I Love Facing A New Year!!

NEW things He wanted to bring about in their lives. This is what Isaiah declared: "Do not earnestly remember the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing. Now it springs forth. Do you not perceive and know it and will you not give heed to it?"

When God wants to do something new, He always asks us to let go of the old. In this instruction, He asked them to NOT earnestly remember the former things. Change for our lives is not always easy to embrace; we often don't like change. Thus, we try to hang on to the former ways of thinking and doing because they are comfortable.

God knew His people needed to be exhorted, even admonished to step into the NEW for their lives. They would need to forget the former things. Then He asks them to take time and perceive, to become fully aware of and recognize His direction, by giving Heed to it. In other words pay attention to, listen, take notice and follow.

When we are open to God's Heart to embrace new things, He will help us and show us the way even if we don't immediately understand His purpose. What new goal or direction may God lead you into this New Year? Remember, the ship can't sail 'till it raises the anchor! Food for thought! Please come join us 10:30 Sunday morning!

At the end of every Christmas season, I often start pondering what might transpire this year. I ask myself, "What new goals do I need to reach for? Was there a goal I need to hit the re-set button on from last year? What will I need to forget and move on to embrace this new year? I wonder, could this be the year that those prayers that have been long awaited might come to pass? I can't say I always have all the answers immediately, but there is something exciting about the new possibilities, new direction, moving on in life with no regrets.

God was excited about new possibilities and big changes coming to His people when He began to speak through Isaiah to stir things up and cast a new vision. This was what He said:

"Behold the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them." (Isa. 42:9)

You see, the Lord was forewarning His people to get them prepared. Have you asked the Lord about His heart towards you and thought about what He might want to do NEW in your life? He always has a plan and purpose and if you will ask, He will answer.

Then in (Isa. 43:19 AMP) the Lord begins to show them HOW to prepare for the Cultural Warfare vs. Christian Lifestyle

James H. Willis, III
 Founder and President
 The Willis Agency, Inc

813-948-9109
Jim@TheWillisAgency.com
www.TheWillisAgency.com

1 Peter 5:7

Has anyone noticed that as Christians, we are in cultural warfare? These days are illustrating it more than ever before, at least so it seems. We are clashing on every level of life. In this article, I will touch on the clash of Cultural Warfare vs. Christian Lifestyle.

In our culture today, it encourages us to spend all that we make. It aggressively teaches us to be needy and it attaches our self-worth to our net worth. I hope I am not saying anything that is startling here, but just like all other areas in life, God wants us to use our money differently than the world does.

What does a Christian lifestyle look like? Well, let me share a little about what I mean as far as lifestyle and spending. 1) Lifestyle spending is a sum total of all financial spending and is not related to other uses of money. 2) It is typically the most significant use of money. 3) It is the primary determinate of "How much is enough?" 4) It is always money "after taxes". 5) Lifestyles typically drive debt decisions.

In order for us to adopt these principles, let me give you some of the Why's and How's with Biblical principles. 1) Financial "contentment" is a choice, not a function of lifestyle. 2) We are commanded to provide for the needs of our family. 3) I must understand that I cannot accumulate enough money to protect my family against all contingencies. 4) I can learn to be content. 5) What lifestyle I choose, I should live with joy. 6) The Bible does not define a Christian lifestyle. Here are a couple of Bible references: 1 Tim. 5:8, 1 Tim. 6:6-8, 1 Tim. 6:17-18, Phil. 4:11-13, and Heb. 13:5-6.

Dr. David Jeremiah defines contentment this way:

- 1) No regrets of the past
- 2) No fear of the future
- 3) No envy in the present

So how do I change my habits, behaviors, and thought processes?

Here are 7 Principles of Lifestyle change:

- 1) Prov. 3:5-6: Prayerfully seek God's direction regarding your lifestyle.
- 2) Phil. 4:11: Learn to be content.
- 3) Ex. 20:17: Learn to avoid coveting.
- 4) 1 John 2:15-17: Your lifestyle should not be determined by comparing it to others.
- 5) 1 Tim. 4:4: Freely enjoy whatever you spend in the Spirit.
- 6) 1 Thess. 4:11-12: Make an effort to live more simply.
- 7) Rom. 12:2: Do not conform to the world.

Finally, here are a couple of key points: spend less than you make, contentment, delayed gratification, every spending decision is a spiritual decision. I hope you find this helpful and hopeful.

Caring for you and yours,
 Jim

Love Yourself for Valentine's Day

Samantha Taylor

That may seem like an odd statement. However, I think that is the art that so many people have lost, especially women. Women usually take care of everyone else but themselves: their kids, spouse, parents or career.

THEN, if they have any energy left, they will take care of themselves. But the problem with this way of living is that if you are not REALLY taking care of you, you won't have the energy to fully enjoy all the other things you are doing.

Since my personal training studio has helped over 6,000 women lose weight, I tend to hear the same things over and over again: "I am so tired that I don't even have the energy to play with my kids at night, let alone spend time with my husband," or "I am so sick of always thinking about my weight or what I am going to wear," or "I want to feel good again because I just hate feeling this way!"

The challenge is that so many women don't know how to take some time for themselves. Yes, all your other responsibilities are important, but if you don't also take care of you, you WILL regret it. You can wake up one day and find yourself 50 pounds overweight or in a size 16 or sitting at the doctor being told you have diabetes or heart disease.

And the scary thing about heart disease is many times the first symptom that someone has it is sudden death! Did you know heart disease is the #1 killer of women, and it kills 1 in 3 people in this country?!

I find it interesting that Jesus' reply to being asked, "What is the most important commandment in the Bible?" that He answered, "To love God with all your heart, soul, and mind and to love your neighbor as yourself." Interesting. How can you love your neighbor as yourself if you don't even love YOU?

It is not a selfish thing to take care of your health and mental well-being. It's called responsibility for your body.

The body you have right now is the only body you get until the day you die, so why not start loving it and taking care of it NOW? If you don't, your body will quickly start to fall apart and you will wonder, "How did this happen to my body?"

I encourage you to break through any excuses of why you aren't doing something and just do it. Give yourself a gift for Valentine's Day. Do something nice for yourself like get a massage, take a hot bath, or get a facial. And I encourage you with this new year to really start to take care of the body God has given you and hire a personal trainer to help you (and husbands, many women enjoy having the gift of a personal trainer).

Learning how to eat is key if you want to be healthy and keep it off. Not a program that is going to put you on drugs or starvation diets so you can't maintain it once you go off them, but a place that helps you to learn how to eat, get physically fit, and be around women like yourself.

We serve many clients in their 50's to 70's in our personal training program. If a place like mine sounds good to you, visit my website to get some delicious recipes. I want you to see how easy it really can be to get results when you make that decision that IT IS TIME to start taking care of YOU.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Thank God For This Paper

Samantha Taylor
Samantha Taylor Fitness

from Dunndead I could do it.

So, 12 years ago I opened my own studio on Florida Avenue and was there for three years. This paper was always my #1 place that was getting me the most calls. I think it's also because people like to hear about what is going on in the community and they like to read about positive stories. I had no idea community papers were such an impact on people but they obviously are.

Then, because of how many women I was helping, nine years ago I was able to step out in faith again and get into my next studio that was almost twice the size, on SR 54 in Lutz. I know without the constant phone calls coming in from Dunndead I would not be where I am today. It's rather momentous for me because this paper was truly the beginning of an amazing career where I get the honor to help so many women lose weight and get healthy—to the tune of over 12 tons of fat that we have helped women lose.

I thank God for this paper, for I know He used it to catapult my business, to get my message out there and to be able to help over 4,500 women lose weight! And even in the tough times over the last fifteen years I knew I couldn't stop advertising, I knew I had to be consistent. And by being faithful, we have been so busy we were able to just fully renovate the studio including putting down rubber flooring in the whole place.

I am so grateful that Dunndead called me fifteen years ago to ask if I wanted to be a part of what they were doing. At the time, I had no idea when I said yes, that I was not "spending" money, but I was investing money in not only my future but all of the people's lives that my business improves.

It really is amazing, and if you want to get known in the community, this paper is the way to do it. Thank you, Dunndead, and thank you, Kay and Mark, for being such nice people to work with and for helping improve our community together. God bless you!

Dental Care For Your Pets

Dental health is very important for your pets overall health. Without routine care most dogs and cats develop periodontal (dental) disease by 3 years of age. Dental disease is the most common health problem in dogs and cats. Periodontal disease starts when plaque (a bacterial film) coats the teeth. The plaque hardens into tartar, a thick yellow or brown layer on the teeth. Tartar can irritate the gums and creates an environment where bacteria thrive. As dental disease progresses, the gums become tender, red and swollen and recede resulting in exposed tooth roots. Once this happens, your pet is at risk for losing teeth. Bacteria can also enter the bloodstream and can create problems for organs such as the heart, lungs, and kidneys.

Some common signs of dental problems are: Bad breath, yellow or brown deposits on the teeth, sensitivity around the mouth, loss of appetite, bleeding or inflamed gums, pawing at the mouth or face and difficulty chewing. Annual veterinary checkups are essential in helping monitor your pet's dental health.

SPECIAL NOTE: February is "Dental Month". During the month of February Sunshine Animal Hospital will be offering discounts on all dental related services.

Florida Native Plant Society

The Nature Coast Chapter of the Florida Native Plant Society meets the second Tuesday of every month at 7:00pm at the Land O' Lakes Community Center, 5401 Land O' Lakes Blvd/US 41, Land O' Lakes, 34639 between SR 52 and SR 54. The subject of the Tuesday, February 13, 2018 meeting is "Habitat Diversity in the Withlacoochee State Forest" presented by Sid Taylor.

Join us for a whirlwind tour of all the trailheads in Withlacoochee State Forest! It will include an overview of recreational opportunities with a sampling of critters and plants within the habitats. We will also hear a bit of history about the origins of the Withlacoochee State Forest and why it is disjunct in five counties.

Sid Taylor graduated from UCF in 1992 with a BS in Botany. Since 1995, she has served as a Resident Park Naturalist at Tillis Hill (Citrus County) in the Withlacoochee State Forest which is managed by Florida Forest Service. Since 2004, Sid has archived photographs from the 1930's to compile the history of the original 113,000 acres of the forest!

Meetings of the Chapter are free, and all interested parties are invited to attend, to bring questions about their yard, and participate in light refreshments and the native plant drawing.

Telephone inquiries are taken by Sandy at (727) 207-1853.

An Act of Kindness: The Good Samaritan

Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he travelled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Valentine's Day: One of America's Most Popular Days

Emperor Claudius II banned marriage for young Roman men, thinking single men made better soldiers

Eventually, the Emperor caught on to the priest's actions, and he was arrested and sentenced to death. Pope Gelasius declared February 14th as the date honoring Valentine's Day near the end of the 5th century. It wasn't until the 1300's that the holiday became associated with love and romance.

Back then, people believed that February 14th also was the beginning of the birds' mating season. The first written Valentine greeting appeared in the 15th century, and by the 17th century people in Great Britain had begun a tradition of exchanging Valentine cards or letters.

Valentine's Day soon caught on in the U.S. as well. The first mass-produced holiday cards emerged in 1840, and Valentine's Day soon exploded into a major consumer holiday. Today, an estimated 1 billion Valentine cards are sent each year, more than any other holiday except for Christmas. More than 35 million heart-shaped boxes of chocolate are sold, and 220 million roses produced for the holiday in a year.

Altogether, Americans spend around $20 billion on Valentine's Day, an average of $130 dollars per person per year. While the most popular gifts were candy and flowers, nearly 20% of Americans splurge on jewelry, shelling out $4 billion annually.

Those who prefer the ultimate romantic gesture are definitely not alone. A recent survey reveals at least six million couples are likely to get engaged on February 14th.

<http://www.history.com/videos/history-of-valentines-day#bet-you-didnt-know-valentines-day>

The festivities began with an animal sacrifice, the ritualistic slapping of a young woman with strips of the animal's skin and blood to dispose of fertility for the coming year. In the fifth century and perhaps in an effort to Christianize the pagan festival, Pope Julius declared February as St. Valentine's Day. As for the real St. Valentine there were several reportedly canonized by the church.

Legend has it that one St. Valentine was a defiant Roman priest who lived during the third century A.D. under Emperor Claudius the second.

Claudius was an ambitious ruler. His battles required vast armies of many to abandon their young families for long periods of time, resulting in a military that was halfhearted and homesick. So determined was Claudius to stop love from sapping the will of his armies, he banned marriages altogether.

Today, Valentine's Day has removed the religious opinions from the past and it's one of the most celebrated holidays on the calendar. A tradition was born and a Cupid, a towering matchmaker, who started out as a Roman God of love, inspired the image of cherubs for Christians and is now a favorite of card makers and mass marketers.

On average, Americans shower their loved ones with 180 million roses, and almost 36 million heart-shaped boxes of candy, not to mention all those cards, dinners and diamonds. All told, the holiday brings in almost 14 billion annually, giving retailers plenty to love as well. But if you're worried that you can't afford to treat your loved ones properly next Valentine's Day, take heart, the poets were right, love is all you really need.

<http://www.history.com/topics/valentines-day-facts/videos#history-of-valentines-day>

Father Valentine thought that was unjust, and defied the Emperor to continue to marry young lovers in secret.

The Emperor eventually caught on to the priest's actions and arrested him, sentencing him to death. It is believed that young couples secretly wed, would visit his cell, passing flowers and notes through the bars as a symbol of their gratitude.

The story continues that the condemned Father Valentine fell in love with his jailer's daughter. On February 14, the day he was executed, it is said he passed the young girl a note, signed from "Your Valentine."

The Origin of Valentine's Day

For all its popularity, history doesn't give us any guarantees as to the origin of Valentine's Day. But we do know it contains messages of the early Christian church in ancient Rome. The association between mid-February and romance goes back to the pagan festival known as Lupercalia, likely honoring either Lupa, the she-wolf of Rome who suckled Romanists, and Remus, their god of fertility.

Coast to Coast Maids

By Karen McBride

Nora Rusch began Coast to Coast Maids to help people make their lives better, healthier, and cleaner. She finds pleasure in making homes sparkle, and bringing joy to her clients. She always knew she wanted to clean homes. Even as a young girl, she enjoyed cleaning the cafeteria at her school.

"I was born to clean. I knew at a very young age that this is what I wanted to do. When the nuns at my school asked if I would like to help clean, I couldn't have been happier!" said Rusch.

The cleaning company services both residential and commercial spaces in Carrollwood, Lutz, Land O' Lakes, New Tampa, Odessa, Tampa, Temple Terrace, South Tampa, Town N' Country, and Westchase. Clients can choose from daily, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly or even call in services.

No home is too big or too small. In addition to making your home spotless, the professional employees can assist with your organizational needs, provide move in/out cleaning, help set up, serve, and take down parties, and more.

"I've been using Coast to Coast Maids for 15 years now, and they have been so reliable, so open to instruction, making sure that everything is done the way I want it, and it's such a relief to come home after a busy day of working and shopping and running errands to walk into a clean house and just smell the cleanliness in the air and the weight is just off your shoulders that you can actually sit down and relax for a minute. I'm really happy with their service, and I think you will be too!" – Mary Kelly

The friendly, dependable employees are prescreened and professionally trained. Periodic background checks are performed to maintain the high level of employee standards.

They do not use independent sub-contractors or vendors. Rusch believes in the hands-on approach. She's in the field every day, working alongside her employees.

Coast to Coast Maids is offering a special 25% "spring cleaning" discount on services from now until the end of March, 2018. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call (813) 388-3889 or visit their website at <http://www.coast-to-coastmaids.com>.

Garden Connect

By Steve and Jeanne Wolfe from White Dove Farm

Greetings. It has been the coldest winter we have experienced for a long time. Brrrr. Everyone around us has been sharing their memories of extreme cold weather. Since many are from different areas of the United States and Canada, we share their discomfort of temperatures near and below zero.

We particularly remember traveling in the military to South Dakota from Mississippi via St. Louis, Missouri in 1973 and having one of the coldest Christmas Eves in 44 years and one of the fiercest blizzards.

I had scolded my wife for having overloaded the car, yet in disguise it became a blessing. God has ways of turning our mistakes into blessings. We saw trucks and cars sliding into the ditches, and here we were—me, my wife and three sons—slowly plowing a path through the snow. I decided to go to the nearest motel since visibility was getting near zero. Lo and behold, we obtained the last room available—thank you, Jesus. The room was cold, so we called the office and requested additional heat and blankets, but they were not available because they were putting up people in the hallways and lobby.

To make the best of a poor situation, we were thankful to get out of the weather and we all slept safely in our coats.

CASSIA. In Florida, the Cassia tree, more like a large shrub, blooms in the fall/winter months with beautiful clusters of golden yellow blossoms. Also known as the Golden Rain Tree, Cassia Fistula, and the Golden Shower Tree, it's one of our favorites for showy blossoms that come back year after year and is fast-growing. It requires very little maintenance, only some trimming since the branches have a tendency to droop.

The picture in this article was rooted by Jeanne from an existing tree we have in the front of our property. Young trees grow asymmetrical with branches drooping toward the ground. Staking and pruning will help to develop a well-shaped and structured crown. This tree is not invasive and is pest-resistant, is moderately drought-tolerant and does well as a street tree.

If you desire a cutting, email or call us at 813-991-9786 and leave message. We will call back. Or send us an email to whtdovefarm@yahoo.com.

We have had only one Garden Connect meeting this last year (2017) since Steve's mother passed and had to cancel several field trips due to the hurricane last year. Hopefully we can resume meetings this spring. Health, wealth, and good wishes to all!

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8:

"For everything there is a season."

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

prayer requests
 "And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive Matt. 21: 22"
 Accepting Life as it Comes Jeremiah 29:4-7 sometimes we are called upon to face tremendous difficulties as a result of our choosing to follow Jesus. Jeremiah told the exiles of his day to live as normal lives as possible. He also told them to pray for the welfare of the city which had taken them captive, much in the same way as Jesus tells us to pray for our enemies as well as for our government. Regardless whether you voted or not, let us all pray together for God to lead us in 2018.

*"Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him."
