Anger is a very serious issue, as you can see when you read the book of Genesis 1:14-16 about the two sons of Adam, Cain and Abel. Cain was a farmer and Abel was a shepherd, and each made an offering of their own produce to God. But when God favored Abel's offering over Cain's, Cain became angry.

God asked Cain, "Why you are angry?" and Cain's heart became darker, which led him to murder his brother and to lie to God. Then God placed a curse upon him.

Jesus tells us in Mathew 5:22 "But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment!" Meaning obviously there may be a time when anger is appropriate.

1 John 3:12: "Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother.

And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous."

Who's wrong and who's right is all that people need sometimes to become angry. If anger and sin is at your door this would be a good time to deal with it. Cain's feeling unappreciated by God was not a sin. But allowing his anger to boil out of control and murdering his brother and lying to God was.

Sometimes people can become unrecognizable to others and yourself if we are not able to circumcise our flesh from the spirit.

This can be an impossible task if you're angry at God, too. At this point you may have intervention like when Jesus healed a demon-possessed man in Mark 5:1-20.

Getting Ready for School

"Get ready for school!" It has been many years since my mom had to wake me up and tell me to get ready for school. I still remember her voice, as if it was yesterday, yelling those words. It was usually because I was still in bed, playing with some toys, or doing almost anything else but getting ready for school.

This month, families begin preparing their children to go back to school. This includes clothes to buy, shoes to replace, backpacks and lunch boxes to be purchased, and school supplies to replenish. But most important of all (especially in my house) is getting back on a sleep schedule that adjusts the kids to the newer (and usually earlier) wake-up time.

There is a lot to be done and never enough time and money. In spite of this, may I add one more item to your To-Do list? Remember to pray for your children, their friends, teachers and administrators.

Pray your children will be safe, that they will adjust easily to new classes and situations. Pray that the friends they make will help encourage them to be their best and not influence them to do their worst. Pray they will learn and grow in maturity.

Pray for their teachers. Ask God to provide them with creativity, wisdom, patience and strength needed to meet the challenges of teaching in this day and age. Pray the classrooms will be warm and inviting, a good place for teachers to teach and children to learn. Pray for the administrators to have the leadership, wisdom and resources needed to promote a safe learning environment that we all desire for our kids.

The Bible says, "The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results." (James 5:16) You don't have to be perfect to be considered "righteous." Paul writes in Romans 4:5, "But people are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners." Our prayers matter. They can make a difference.

This month, along with all the purchases, preparations and changes in schedules, take the time to pray. I'm sure our children, teachers and school systems will appreciate our prayers, and they will benefit from them as well.

Have You Been Suffering, And You're Blaming God?

"Let no one say when he is tempted (tested), I am tempted (tested) from God; for God is incapable of being tempted by [what is] evil and He Himself tempts (tests) no one with evil." James 1:13 (Classic Amplified)

This verse literally means, NEVER let it come out of your mouth saying that God tests or tempts with evil, as He is INCAPABLE of being tempted or tested with evil and He does not test or tempt any man.

This word incapable means God lacks the ability, capacity, or power to be enticed to do evil. Why? Because God is GOOD!! James went on to say in that chapter "Every good and perfect gift comes from God in whom there is no variation nor shadow of turning."

In other words, He is not fickle, nor does He pick and choose how to tempt people to do evil to hurt them. God is good and good gifts come from Him!! James continued to say "Don't be deceived in this, every man is tempted when he is drawn away of his own lust and when that is conceived and finished it will bring forth death."

Apparently one can be deceived into believing that God is not for them but is working against them to bring evil into their lives. Did you know that God receives the blame for evil operating in people's lives? Oftentimes, statements are made like "God is in control" and questions like, "Well if God really cared then why doesn't HE do something?"

I understand questioning to learn, but too often statements and or questions are made from a disposition of hurt, pain and anger because of their misunderstanding of the character of God. Truthfully, if God did half the things that were attributed to Him, He would be considered a child abuser. If God were in control, personally I would say I think He is doing a lousy job then!

If He is not the author of bringing evil into one's life then whom do you think is? How can one effectively pray to God for something to change when all the while they believe God is doing it to them?

There is no way in this article that I am going to be able to be able to write an exhaustive commentary on this, but, I do want to provoke your thinking, if you have fallen into blaming God for your life's circumstances. Here is a little explanation over how evil got ushered into this world and why evil still prevails.

We read in Genesis that Adam and Eve were given life and a responsibility in the garden to guard and protect it and be fruitful and multiply. The command was that they were to NOT partake of the tree of life because if they did, they would surely die. We know they disobeyed God through a temptation from the serpent (devil) in Genesis 3, and as a result a curse (sin, sickness, disease, hate, poverty and all evil) was ushered into the earth for all mankind.

The sole reason the devil tempted them was to bring this curse into the world so that he could set up his evil system. Adam and Eve chose to disobey God. This was not at all what He had desired for them. It broke His heart! They were supposed to rule in that garden and keep out that which would have been harmful, including this serpent.

They gave up their power and authority to the enemy (devil) to rule in this earth through their disobedience. That curse allowed the devil to rule in this world's system with his efforts always to steal, kill, and destroy. All we have to do is look around this world and see the consequences of their disobedience and the destruction of man in this world still happening today.

Thus, God had a plan to restore mankind back into that place of authority in his life as it was in the garden. He couldn't wave a magic wand; He had to work within the realms of authority He had established. He could not circumvent his own authority. It was a man that had given up his right to rule in this world's system and it was a man that had to come and restore it. God had to come as a man and destroy this serpent's power and restore to man his authority again. He had to work within the realm of faith, because that was how the whole world was spoken into being.

Eventually, He would find a young woman who would believe His Word and birth His Son to come into this world and restore man back to a right relationship with Him. His son Jesus through his death shed his blood was buried and resurrected. Why was this so important? If He had remained in the tomb, He would never have restored us to our rightful place to rule and reign in this life. His resurrection revealed that He had destroyed the devil's power and authority over us.

The problem is too many of us do not understand our authority as a believer over what the devil tries to do to us when He comes to try to steal, kill, or destroy. Jesus said (Luke 10:19), "Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

The deception is that he leads many to believe he still can rule in their lives. Unfortunately, many believers are convinced that the evil that has attacked them is from God and instead of fighting in prayer to command it to cease they embrace the evil as some work of God or blame God for the circumstances, when all the while He has given them the power and authority over the evil (devil) if they would just exercise it.

He has given us the right to rule, he can't do it for us. The good news is that we can reign in this life through Christ Jesus, though challenged by evil on all sides, God has given us victory and in the life to come!! Food for thought!!

When my personal training career started in this area over 17 years ago, Mark Dunn called me and asked if I wanted to be a part of it. I was new in business here but knew I had to get my name out there, so this was the first media outlet I had ever advertised in. As people started to hear about what I offered, through THIS paper, my name started to get out in the community, and in a few years I became the #1 producing personal trainer in the large gym I was in, out of 2,000 trainers!

When it was time to go out on my own, God used THIS paper to give me the confidence that I could find clients outside of that gym. I knew I must, because I wanted to create an environment for women that didn't want to be in a gym. That wanted a safe place they could work out and not feel judged. I also enjoy catering to Christian women who liked that our studio cared about that.

Now we have trained over 6,000 people, have 17 trainers, won the Small Business of the Year Award by the Chamber, give free seminars to the community, and started a meal prep service delivered to your home. We opened our 5th location in Palm Harbor, and we just moved our Wesley Chapel location into a new building that we own. We also have Land O Lakes, Carrollwood, Westchase, and more to come!

I thank God for bringing this paper into my life, and I am SO grateful, for they helped give me the original confidence that I could build this business, and look what its turned into and the amount of people we serve! The owners, Mark and Kay, are some the nicest, most genuine people you'll ever meet and I appreciate how they honor Jesus Christ in this paper. It's such a blessing to partner with them, and I'm happy to know that I am the longest advertiser in the last 17 years!

Encountering the Real Jesus: Toward Childhood Keith Chandler, Journey Christian Church

Jesus is ultimately heading to Jerusalem where he knows that he will lose his life. He's trying to tell his disciples what will happen, BUT THEY DON'T GET IT and they are in the back and they are arguing with each other.

"They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were, because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, 'The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.' But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it." —Mark 9:30-32

He's telling them what's about to happen to him when they go to Jerusalem. He's going to be betrayed and killed and rise three days later, but they don't get it and they are afraid to ask. We've been there before, right?

"They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest." —Mark 9:33-34

Jesus had just told them he's going to be handed over, tried, and killed. And they're arguing over who is the greatest! I'm trying to imagine what this might have been like.

This would be like you finding out you had a month to live and your kids are arguing over who gets the car.

"Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, 'Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all.'"

Jesus introduces a new theology that he will reiterate again and again. It's called the Theology of Humility. We want to push against that because it goes against our nature. But if we're going to be followers of Jesus, we have to live and lead like Jesus did. Jesus is going to give us a picture of how to lead.

"Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.'" —Mark 9:36-37

Really, Jesus, THAT'S what you have for us? I think they're leaning in, waiting for their promotion. They are waiting for him to announce the example of greatness (Peter, come on down!). We want to show everyone what greatness looks like. But Jesus is redefining greatness. He's telling us what greatness really looks like.

Matthew 18 says, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. So anyone who becomes as humble as this child, is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven." —Matthew 18:3-4

There's something about the dependency of a child. A child is completely dependent on others. I never wanted the kids to come in and say, "Dad I'm really worried if we're gonna be able to pay the mortgage this month." I don't want that to even cross their mind. I just want them to be children.

Jesus is talking about this child-like trust and dependency on God that only comes through humility. I love the way Tim Keller puts it. He says, "The only person who dares to wake a king at 3am for a glass of water is a child."

With God, we have that kind of access. That's the picture of what the kingdom is like.

You come to your heavenly father that way.

"Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." —Mark 10:15

I was thinking about how a little child approaches life.

They have a sense of wonder.

You take your children to Disney. The lines are long, but a child has this sense of wonder. Children are blind to color and social class. Children are dependent on their parents. They are expressive with their emotions. They get excited about Christmas. They have all the time in the world to play.

They don't get stressed out. They live in the moment. They aren't afraid to make new friends. They hate to sleep, but they have no trouble sleeping. They seek to imitate their parents. They are not afraid to recognize and to admit their own weaknesses. They never get tired of asking questions. (We get tired of that). They are not afraid to dance. They may tattle, but they don't gossip. They tell you honestly what they like and dislike and why. They live for hugs and kisses and candy. The simplest thing can become a treasure in the hands of a child.

What if that described our faith again?

What if we approached God like that? Not a childish faith, but a childlike faith.

When was the last time you approached

God with awe and wonder?

Until next month,
Keith

Free Little Pantry

You may have recently read, in the Lutz Gazette, about the Free Little Pantry at All Saints Lutheran Church. It was advertised as a gift to the community, a way in which we bear witness to the love of Jesus Christ by helping to reduce food insecurities in our community. As you might remember, this Free Little Pantry is in the parking lot of All Saints (5315 Van Dyke Rd.), and is accessible to anybody at any time.

After about six months of doing this ministry, we have discovered that there is much more food insecurity in our community than we imagined. Even with the generous donations that we receive, there are some weeks that we can't keep up with the need. It hurts to know there are times that this Free Little Pantry is empty when somebody shows up in need. For this reason, we are requesting that you consider joining us in working to reduce food insecurity in our community. When you get the calling in your heart, I invite you to just stop in our parking lot and drop something off. Place it in the box, offer a prayer for the people who you are helping, and drive away with the faith that God will use your gift in ways that you can't even imagine! I thank you for your support of our community.

Blessings,
Pastor Josh

The Great Florida Outdoors: The Calusa Heritage Trail

Dr. Robert Norman, Clinical Professor, Dermatology, Nova Southeastern University

Enter an internationally significant archaeological and historic Calusa site!

Along with a visit to the Randell Research Center, you can travel on the Calusa Heritage Trail. The 0.9 mile interpretive walkway will lead you through the mounds, canals, and other features of the Pineland archaeological site. Along the way you will get detailed information regarding the Calusa Indians who inhabited the Pineland site. Highlights include learning about the Calusa culture and environment and a trail with observation platforms atop the site's tallest shell mound. Trailside benches and a boardwalk and bridge provide access over low-lying areas.

For many centuries, the mighty Calusa accumulated huge shell mounds, engineered canals, and sustained tens of thousands of people from the fish and shellfish found in the rich estuaries west and south of Fort Myers. Here in the estuarine landscape between Charlotte Harbor and the Ten Thousand Islands region of the Everglades are the small number of remaining shell mound sites.

On the Calusa Heritage Trail, visitors can tour an internationally significant site and learn about Calusa culture and their environment. Museum-quality interpretive signs along the Trail provide visitors with detailed information regarding the Calusa Indians who inhabited the Pineland site, their culture and environment, and the history of Southwest Florida after the Calusa left. The trail also features observation platforms atop the site's tallest shell mound, in addition to benches and a boardwalk and bridge over low-lying areas.

Why is this site so significant?

For over 1,500 years, the site near the waters of Pine Island Sound was a Calusa Indian village. Perhaps you can imagine the many centuries of Indian village life as you examine the remnants of the village and the ancient canal that reached across Pine Island. Early Florida pioneer history is reflected in historic structures. The native plants and animals characteristic of pinelands, coastal hammocks, wetlands can be found during your exploration.

Archaeological and ecological importance seems to fill the air. The remains of centuries of Calusa daily life reveal a fascinating, complex world that existed before the arrival of Europeans. Waterlogged deposits preserve artifacts not found in dry sites and include ancient botanical remains found nowhere else in North America. Pineland provides a key to understanding larger, global issues; accumulated deposits hold information on sea-level fluctuations and climate changes that scientists all over the world can study and add to the earth's environmental history. The site has proven to be an ideal location for teaching students and the general public about Florida's environment and history.

Wealth Transfer

1 Peter 5:7

When I bring up the topic of Wealth Transfer, we need to realize that it is different from Estate Planning. Estate Planning is all about the estate. It is done at death and is driven by tax efficiency and control, whereas Wealth Transfer places high priority on a benefit to a beneficiary. Wealth Transfer is stewardship-driven and can begin now, with goals and a priority of honoring God. It is said that Wealth Transfer is the last stewardship decision we will make.

On the average, household wealth is growing and will likely go the next generation. This wealth is going to be transferred to future generations and many will not even know the source of their wealth. So, it becomes very important that this transfer of wealth be very thoughtful. It is said that there will be $42-$126 trillion dollars passed to the next generation over the next 40 plus years. That is $1-3 trillion yearly.

This information makes the process and its intentionality very important. Developing this process that begins as soon as possible that is stewardship-driven will honor God and will help plan the potential impact to your heirs. Besides the 6 steps of Wealth Transferring there are 3 principles I'd like to share. 1) Treasure Principle: You can't take it with you, but you can give it ahead of time. 2) The Unity Principle: Husbands and wives must be in complete agreement. 3) The Wisdom Principle: Never pass wealth without first passing wisdom. Wealth will never create wisdom, although wisdom may create wealth. At the Willis Agency, we have the tools and the relationships to start and finish this process.

"This, then is held to be the duty of the man of wealth: First, to set an example of modest, unostentatious living, shunning display or extravagance; to provide moderately for the legitimate wants of those dependent upon him; and after doing so to consider all surplus revenues which come to him simply as trust funds, which he is called upon to administer."

What Does It Take To Change?

Many people have to reach a place where they are so uncomfortable with the pain of staying there that it outweighs the fear of changing. Some reach a point where they say, "I just can't live like this anymore." The good thing about reaching that point is that you are more likely to do something about it. Often when someone doesn't have enough pain or discomfort, then it doesn't motivate them to take action.

The most common things women tell me when they finally get the courage to call is, "I saw a picture of myself and I couldn't believe my body has turned into this." Or "Someone asked me when my baby was due and I am not pregnant!" Or "I feel like I am 20 years older than I am and I am starting to look like my mother who is not healthy or in shape." Or "I am the heaviest weight I've ever been and every time I step on the scale I tell myself that is the heaviest I will let myself get to." Or "I kept telling myself I can do this on my own but it's not happening."

Usually when someone reaches this point, they realize that if they don't do something now, they might be in big trouble later with their health. They start to get really concerned about the next 10 years of their life, yet some can only think about being concerned with the next 3 months.

I heard a statement over 20 years ago that really impacted my life and it was, "You will never change what you tolerate." That is so true! If you accept it in your life, you won't change it. But if you say, "Enough is enough, I am not going to live like this anymore," then possibly you will muster up enough courage to do something about it. If you don't, one more month turns into another year, then all a sudden, another decade. Then we wake up 20 years older, looking ourselves back in the mirror with regret because we didn't take care of our bodies.

I encourage you to do something about it now. Don't wait. Don't let it get to a point where you are forced to get serious because you are facing some serious medical condition due to not caring about your health. You can be proactive with your health and take action now! I know it can be a little scary and some feel nervous to make that decision, but you have to start somewhere. Sometimes it's making the phone call or going on the website that can be the most difficult part. Stephanie, who just lost 95 lbs. with us in 12 months, told me on our TV show on ABC, "I cancelled the consultation 4 times, I was so scared, but I finally did it, I realized I had to believe I could!"

Our personal training studios help you learn how to eat healthier in a way you love, get rid of food cravings, and experience a new healthy relationship with food. And to get your body moving again to get a toned, fit and trim body. We can help you if you give us the chance. We have 5 locations: Land O' Lakes, Wesley Chapel, Carrollwood, Westchase, and our newest in Palm Harbor.

Take that first step, just call us or go on the website and book a Body Transformation Analysis. This could be the next step you need to turn your life into a happier, healthier one where you feel great and can look in the mirror again and be happy with what you see!

IT'S TIME. ARE YOU READY TO TRANSFORM YOUR BODY?

I lost 85 lbs. In 11 months. It's a surreal feeling. I tried losing weight before and it never worked, so I had given up trying. Then I turned 50 and I knew I had to do something because I was tired of looking at myself. I decided that wasn't going to be me. I wanted to spend time with my kids. I felt like I let my kids down. I've transformed my body thanks to the trainers and the support that I've been given. I feel confident and am enjoying time with my family now. - Stephanie W.

An Act of Kindness: The Good Samaritan

Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he travelled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Storm Phobia

Is your pet afraid of thunder storms? Does your pet begin to pace, drool, cling tight to you or hide in the closet before or during a storm? If the answer is yes then you are not alone. It is unknown what the exact triggers are for these panic attacks but many suspect thunder, lightning, wind, barometric pressure changes and static electricity. Can your pet grow out of this condition, and is there anything that can be done? Most of the time pets do not grow out of this condition on their own, and many pets will get worse as they get older. Fortunately there is help. Depending on your pet, treatment for this condition can take several forms. There are holistic products such as tight fitting garments like the "Thundershirt", oral treatments like Rescue Remedy, or Pheromone collars and plug in diffusers that disperse a calming hormone. Prescription anti anxiety medications such as Trazadone, Xanax and Valium can be helpful. Behavior modification is the best way to fix the problem but requires hiring a behaviorist, which can be expensive, and they often incorporate prescription medication with training techniques. We have our best results with a management plan that includes some or all of the techniques described above. You should consult with your veterinarian to come up with a plan that best fits your pets needs.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Biblical Dating

In 26 years of ministry of working with young people, I would say that dating is definitely at the top of the list of things that gets teens into trouble. In my experience, a majority of the problem is that most parents have no clear direction on the topic of dating and relationships for their teenagers. With a lack of direction combined with so many opinions that have been adopted from a worldly standpoint, our young people are nearly doomed for failure. May I say to parents that this is a critical topic, one that you cannot avoid dealing with. It needs to start much younger than what most would think.

Biblical dating is not the most popular topic, and for many, it will be classified as "old fashioned" and "outdated." I firmly believe that we have an obligation to God to do the best we can to train every child that He has placed into our care at Hope. With that in mind, I take the time every year to have a dating seminar with our 7th-12th graders. For most all of them, it is the first time in their lives that they have looked at boy/girl relationships from a biblical perspective. Let me share with you a few of the principles we teach our children.

1 God placed Adam in the garden. Because of Adam's walk in life, the garden was the most important thing to him. His heart's desire was taking care of the garden. Because of our teens' walk of life, the most important thing for them should be studying, serving the Lord, sports, church activities, etc.

2 God created the exact, perfect, ideal woman for Adam. Adam did not have to go looking for Eve. Adam was faithfully serving the Lord when God brought Eve to Adam. Our teens do not have to go looking for someone. They should faithfully serve the Lord, and in God's timing, He will be faithful to bring the exact, perfect, ideal mate for them.

3 Then the big question. What is the purpose for dating anyway? Is it just to have fun and spend time with someone you enjoy? Or could we be honest and say that dating doesn't normally stay at a friendship level but grows deeper. I believe the purpose for dating is to find a life mate. When two people date, regardless of age, it always leads to a more intimate relationship.

4 Unless your 16 year old son or daughter is ready for marriage, it may be worth rethinking this whole "going out" and "going steady" thing. There is certainly nothing wrong with a bunch of young people spending time together and enjoying each other's fellowship.

As a matter of fact, it's healthy. The youth department of your church is a great avenue for just that. The problem comes when young people want to start singling off, trading rings, and establishing some type of ownership of each other.

Remember, parents, that God has trusted you with that teenager, and if anyone "owns" them, it is you and you alone. This ownership does not change until the day you walk them down the aisle in marriage.

I would encourage every parent to begin at a very early age to train your children in the biblical perspective of dating and proper relationships with those of the opposite sex. There are so many broken lives of young people that could have been saved had parents took a stand and applied some of these simple Bible truths. God's way still works!

The Angry Christian

Jesus commands us to watch in 1 Corinthians 16 and Matthew 24. But all that people are watching is the news and the fake news trading punches. Was there any Russian involvement in our election or any collusion at all? Was Stormy Daniels paid $130,000 dollars for her story? And why did we punish 2,000 children by ripping them away from their parents? In Mathew 19:14 Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

It's interesting how we will pledge allegiance to our flag as our nation then fall short of what Jesus did for us. If he is our Father and we are His children, we need to think about our anger when we offer up punishment to our children when they become disobedient.

Such as time out, go to your room, no supper for you to night, or some may just kick them out of the Garden of Eden all together saying "You're not going to act like the devil in my house, so get out until I come for you." You do this because you want them to think about what they had done.

My father, who I love and who recently passed, was a bull-necked belligerent man in his day! But, if you were to ask any one who knew him, they would say he was the sweetest man they knew as "Sam the telephone man." But if you were to cut him off in traffic, he definitely would give you a mouthful. Sometimes we will say, "The devil made me do it."

Either way, God allows us to repent from our anger that brought us to sin and gives us a mulligan and says, "Get up and try again so that you may be ready when I come."

When you're being challenged, try saying "I work for Him." Because until that day there are always going to be people talking rhetoric just to hear their own voice. Some think they are going to shoot their way into heaven like they're in the Wild, Wild, West.

But as for Cain and Abel, it was about who was wrong and who was right. We feel it the most when it involves someone we love. Kay and I often cross those bridges and we learned that our opinion does not matter, because Jesus is always right!

John 3:15: "Whoever hates his brother is a murderer and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him."

What is anger? It's a strong feeling of displeasure, belligerence, hostility, or wrath aroused by some real or perceived wrong.

Romans 1:18: "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness."

The question here is does God ever get angry? You might be surprised that there is good anger, because we are made in the image of God, of the passion of righteous indignation with an appropriate amount of emotion and anger towards just purposes.

Exodus 32:19: "When Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, his anger burned and he threw the tablets out of his hands, breaking them to pieces at the foot of the mountain."

When he saw this, his anger waxed hot and he was outraged after they had just made a covenant with God and Moses had the Ten Commandments, God's writings, still radiating in his hands.

He goes to the people and finds them breaking all Ten Commandments. Then, you have to ask yourself, was this the right kind of anger? The early church father, Chris Adam, said "He who is not angry when he has cause, sins for unreasonable patience and is in the hotbed of many vices."

Mark 11:15: "So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves."

He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple and said, "You've made my Father's house a den of thieves!" Hopefully the pastors will not ever have to go as far as in Nehemiah 13:25: "So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying 'You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons of the pagans, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.'"

Nehemiah was saying, "This is how we got carried away off to Babylon in the first place and you're starting to do it again!" and he flew off the handle.

John Wesley said, "He that would be angry and sin must not be angry with anything but sin." Meaning the righteous anger is the anger against sin. Martin Luther became angry at the church's abuse of power, saying "When I'm angry, I can write, I can pray, I can preach well, for my whole temperament is quickened and understanding is sharpened," and you could feel and see Luther's animated nature.

Aristotle put it this way: "Anybody can become angry, that's easy, but to be angry with the right person to the right degree at the right time for the right purpose, in the right way, that is not within everybody's power and it is not easy."

A lot of the time we think that our anger is the righteous anger, but it's not. More often we get angry when we are challenged about who's wrong and who's right, just as when Peter challenged Jesus, saying "I'll die for you."

Matthew 26:34: "Jesus said to him, 'Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.'"

Potiphar's wife became angry. When Joseph would not accept her advances she was willing to send him to jail. Some anger doesn't happen all at once because we have this mini storage department in our mind of these little offenses, saying it's no big deal. Then later when something else happens, they pop up like frequent flyer miles sending you on a free trip to anger land. You may know someone like that.

1 Timothy 6:4: "He is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over works, from which come envy, strife, and reviling, evil suspicions."

Anger destroys communication, generates fear, scars relationships, and creates bad health. Oh, and let's not forget those who are still angry with people that are dead. They feel if they let go who is going to stay angry with them, not knowing they are destroying themselves with their anger.

Tyson got so angry that he bit off a piece of his opponent's ear and lost millions. Showing anger can be expensive, and people who lose their temper seem to always have to have something or someone to blame. But most of the time there is no good excuse.

Though an appropriate amount of emotion and anger towards just purposes may be necessary, one needs to stay on alert because your anger is basically giving yourself over to the devil and later you may regret it.

Proverbs 25:28: "Whoever has rule over his own spirit is like a city broken down, without walls." This means you're allowing the devil access to your life.

Ecclesiastes 7:9: "Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools."

Notice how Solomon said, "do not hasten in your spirit. He doesn't say you should never be angry but do not be hasten to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. Thomas Kemp said, "When anger enters the mind, wisdom departs. I say an angry man is seldom reasonable, and a reasonable man is seldom angry."

People who are always giving someone a piece of their mind should be careful, because if you giving away enough pieces, it may affect your IQ. So for the Angry Christians if you making a stand on humanity like Jesus did, remember you may also be leaving yourself open to the devil and you to may find yourself saying, "The devil made me do it."

But nevertheless, you and your anger are still in good company because I heard an angry man who once said "You've made my Father's house a den of thieves," and He was Jesus Christ.

Matthew 22:21: "Jesus said 'Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. For there is no authority except from God and those which exist are established by God.'"

Matthew 16:24-26: "So take up your cross." Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?'"

So if you are going to get angry let buyers beware, and remember: "I work for Him!"

Crespo Business Brokers
 By Karen McBride

Crespo Business Brokers is a firm that specializes in representing companies in the dental and medical industry. Daniel Crespo, Business Broker Agent, chose this industry because he wants to help people.

“And what better industry to help than the people who help others?” said Daniel.

He has been a Business Broker Agent since 2014. The expert business broker assists his clients with business sales, acquisitions, and commercial real estate. With his contacts in the dental and medical industry, he is able to locate the best possible sellers or buyers for his clients.

In an effort to ensure confidentiality on behalf of the seller, prospective buyers are pre-screened and sign a non-disclosure agreement. At that time, the seller’s name and business details are revealed.

“Helping and not judging each other will make us all stronger as we are all in this universe together! Allow us to help you help us! Our motto is ‘Providing Excellence to our Clients’” said Daniel.

Crespo Business Brokers is located at 1351 Loretto Circle, Odessa, FL 33556. For more information, call 813-770-6712, email crespobusinessbrokers@yahoo.com, or visit their website at <https://crespobusinessbrokers.com/contact-us>.

As a longtime advertiser in Dunndead Publications, I just wanted to say thanks for your years of service. I've met so many great readers over the years, many who use our services year after year. Advertising in your publications is probably the sole reason my Palm Trimming business has succeeded over the years. It's the only place I gladly pay for advertising year after year. Thanks Kay for all the great service over the years, and I'm looking forward to many more years of advertising with you!

Nora Rusch began Coast to Coast Maids to help people make their lives better, healthier, and cleaner. She finds pleasure in making homes sparkle, and bringing joy to her clients. She always knew she wanted to clean homes. Even as a young girl, she enjoyed cleaning the cafeteria at her school.

“I was born to clean. I knew at a very young age that this is what I wanted to do. When the nuns at my school asked if I would like to help clean, I couldn't have been happier!” said Rusch.

The cleaning company services both residential and commercial spaces in Carrollwood, Lutz, Land O' Lakes, New Tampa, Odessa, Tampa, Temple Terrace, South Tampa, Town N' Country, and Westchase. Clients can choose from daily, weekly, bi-weekly, monthly or even call in services.

No home is too big or too small. In addition to making your home spotless, the professional employees can assist with your organizational needs, provide move in/out cleaning, help set up, serve, and take down parties, and more.

“I've been using Coast to Coast Maids for 15 years now, and they have been so reliable, so open to instruction, making sure that everything is done the way I want it, and it's such a relief to come home after a busy day of working and shopping and running errands to walk into a clean house and just smell the cleanliness in the air and the weight is just off your shoulders that you can actually sit down and relax for a minute. I'm really happy with their service, and I think you will be too!” – Mary Kelly

The friendly, dependable employees are prescreened and professionally trained. Periodic background checks are performed to maintain the high level of employee standards.

They do not use independent sub-contractors or vendors. Rusch believes in the hands-on approach. She's in the field every day, working alongside her employees.

Need help preparing for a party or cleaning up afterwards? Memorial Day through Labor Day Special! 3 hours for $75 ($90 value). 4 hours for $100 ($120 value).

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call (813) 388-3889 or visit their website at <http://www.coastto-coastmaids.com>.

Steven Papola, Allstate Agent By Karen McBride

Steven Papola has always wanted to serve the community. He was a police officer and a part-time insurance agent who ran a successful insurance business until the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2011. He was forced to suspend his insurance activities when he was assigned to help assist with the recovery efforts. He volunteered as a Cobra Team Member and was assigned to the Anti-Terrorist Section of the Brooklyn North Task Force.

He later moved to Florida and continued to serve the community as a police officer. Steve served with the Pinellas County Schools Police and provided Security Services for the Pinellas County Board of Education. Eventually, he became a deputy sheriff with the Pasco County Sheriff's office.

Steve was an Allstate agent from 1995-1998 before going out on his own. He has returned to Allstate insurance company as an agent in the newly opened office in Lutz. He views insurance as a natural extension of serving and protecting the public.

“A customer is a customer, whether you are wearing a uniform serving them in one capacity or wearing a suit and serving them in another capacity,” said Steve.

His agency offers all facets of insurance including homeowners, property and flood insurance for both individuals and businesses, policies for automobile, boat, motorcycle, and even off-road vehicles. Life insurance, annuities, and retirement plans are covered as well. With over 10 years of experience in the insurance industry, he is able to help you in all your needs to ensure you are protected.

His office is located at 1528 Land O Lakes Boulevard, Suite 102, Lutz, FL. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 813-995-6013 or visit <https://agents.allstate.com/steven-papola-lutz-fl.html>.

JESUS is not our Religion, he is our Savior...

Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. Hebrews 11:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:3 “Let there be light...”

Thanks to the advertisers, our Operating Partners, we are making a difference in the community. Their support of the Gazettes has brought us to the crossroads in Bible ministries that our forefathers forged into our Constitution, IN GOD WE TRUST. As a Christian publication, we are on a mission to exceed expectations with outstanding hard work by connecting with Christian businesses and churches. Our uplifting editorials are mainly contributions from local businesses, churches, and events.

Let all that you do be done in love. 1st Corinthians 16:14

Help us to continue to connect with other Christian businesses and churches that would benefit with exposure in the Gazettes and receive a $100 referral or make a donation to your church. Please help our advertisers to monitor their results by letting them know you saw them in the Gazettes!
